Auction Material Solicited

Donation material for the special Canadian Numismatic Association benefit should be forwarded to Frank Cuomo, 62 Longwood Road, South, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, members of the Hamilton Coin Club, reminded today. Hamilton is the site of the eighth annual C.N.A. convention, to be held August 31, September 1 and 2. Bruce R. Brace is convention chairman; his address is 100 Mermaid Avenue, Hamilton. Mrs. Thelma Anderson, 24 Wavell Avenue, Hamilton, is the convention secretary-treasurer.

The host club is leaving no stone unturned to see to the comfort of their guests—they even plan limousine service from Malton Airport straight to the Royal Connaught Hotel, convention headquarters, for convention-goers who arrive by air. For those traveling by automobile there will be free parking for those registered at the hotel.

Fashion show, tea, card parties and other pleasant diversions are being planned for the ladies plus a special tour through the city of Hamilton which recently has grown larger than Winnipeg.

Dealers are urged to send their bourse reservations early; more than half of the available space is already been taken. Payment is to be made in Canadian funds to the Hamilton Coin Club for bourse accommodations.

Detroit Man Named To CSNS Governors

C. A. M. Smith of Detroit has been named by Ray O. Lefman, Kansas City, president of the Central States Numismatic Society, to fill the Board of Governors' vacancy created by the death of Paul Schilling.

Smith, a past governor, will be the Michigan representative for C.S.N.S.

Firm Incorporates

The Minkus Stamp and Coin Galleries, Inc., R. Harvey Chappell Jr., agent, 500 Mutual Building, Richmond, Va., is listed in recent commonwealth of Virginia incorporations. The firm buys, sells and deals in coins and stamps.

Colorado Woman Named As Denver Mint Superintendent

Official Kennedy Mint Medal Issued

This is the official presidential medal of John Fitzgerald Kennedy, struck at the Philadelphia Mint. The work of Gilroy Roberts, chief engraver of the United States Mint, and his assistant, Frank Gasparro, the three-inch bronze medal is an illustrious counterpart to the official presidential series which starts with Washington and ends with the 35th chief executive. The Kennedy medal bears the president's profile and his name on the obverse. On the reverse is the presidential seal and these words from his inaugural speech: "We shall pay any price, bear any burden, meet any hardship, support any friend, oppose any foe to assure the survival of liberty." All presidential medals cost $3. They can be ordered by sending money orders, certified checks or cashier's checks to Mrs. Rae V. Biester, Superintendent, United States Mint, Philadelphia 30, Pa.

White House Chooses Mrs. Albert Miller

The new superintendent of the Denver Mint—Mrs. Albert Miller of Platteville, Colo.—is a kind, motherly-looking woman who knows the freshness of a country morning—she's lived on a farm for 48 years!

She attributes her reputation for getting things done to this rural background. "You can't avoid getting into a lot of activities there."

Mrs. Miller's new job, however, is far removed from the pastoral. She'll see to it that more than two billion coins are produced during the Denver Mint's fiscal year. She'll keep watch over the more than two billion dollars in gold stored in the Mint vaults.

Of course, the efficient accounting department personnel at the Mint will make Mrs. Miller's job easier. But money matters don't scare her. She handled the finances for the family's farming operation and a custom-threshing business her husband once operated.

She kept books, too, during nine years as secretary of the Platteville Consolidated School Board.

Mrs. Miller has been so busy learning the details of her new job she didn't take time to invite all of her friends to her swearing-in ceremony.

So she made up for lost time and held open house at the Mint for 150 of her friends and relatives.

The open house was only figurative, Mrs. Miller smiled. Regular security measures were maintained.

Intimates of Mrs. Miller are not surprised to see her sitting behind the huge desk in the office of the superintendent in the heavily guarded building.

They know her capabilities and her capacities. So they took it as a matter of course when the official appointment came from the White House, naming Mrs. Miller

Manor Coins Moves To Florida

Manor Coins, owned by Dwight L. Musser, one of the nation's leading foreign paper money experts, has been moved from Dunbar, W. Va., to Indian Rocks Beach, Florida.

Address of Manor Coins will be Box 428, Indian Rocks Beach.

In a simultaneous announcement with the change of location, Musser announced his newest publication, "Foreign Paper Money Price List."

The list, one of the few of its kind issued in the United States, features Japanese invasion notes and various issues of Germany, China, Mexico and Greece.

A charge of 25 cents will be made for the list, Musser said, but this amount will be deducted from patrons' first order.

Canadian Mint Shops For Supplier

The Royal Canadian Mint, Ottawa, which has been importing blanks for five cent nickels, plans to produce its own this year, according to The Northern Miner, a weekly newspaper devoted to the mining industry of Canada.

Sheriff Gordon Mines and Atlas Steels of Welland are in the running as potential suppliers of blanks for the coins, according to the publication.

Mass produced blanks are now imported from the United Kingdom rolling mills where they are made for the coinage of many countries.

Mint officials in Canada are concerned with the economics of making money, the mining-spokesman said. With imported blanks the mint has been able to keep the price of five cent nickels just under five cents.

Approximately 11 million nickels are expected to be minted this year at the Royal Canadian Mint, the Northern Miner said, with about 30,000,000 Canadian nickels already in circulation.

Florida is re-welcoming the Musser family—Mr. and Mrs. Musser and their four children; they formerly lived there and have now returned for dual reasons—Musser will teach in a St. Petersburg Junior High School, and everybody in the family likes the Florida sunshine.

Manor Coins was founded by Musser three years ago; prior to that time he was a part-time dealer.

He is probably best known for the excellent "World Paper Money Journal" which he edits and publishes periodically. Some of these back issues are available, and Musser will supply prices upon request.

He co-authored with Edgars Berzins—"Paper Money of the Baltic States," a study of the currency of Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania, as an important 1961 contribution to numismatic literature.

Building Fund For A. N. A. Grows

Members of the Zebulon Pike Coin Club of Colorado Springs, Colo., have voted to contribute $1 per member to the building fund of the American Numismatic Association.

A check for $200 will be presented to the A.N.A. at the National Convention in Atlanta, in August, by Ralph Cleaver. The Colorado Springs club is carrying on a campaign to have that city established as the A.N.A. national headquarters.

Specialists Plan Meeting At Atlanta

Collectors of ancient and medieval coins will be interested to learn of a meeting to be called at the Atlanta convention of the American Numismatic Association for those interested in this area of numismatics.

F. J. Windler Jr., 3736 Whitland Avenue, Nashville, Tenn., is one of the organizers of the meeting. He said details of the session would be announced at the convention.

Such publications, issued under the firm name of Manor Press, will be available from the Florida firm as well as currency and some foreign coins, Musser said.

He has been a collector since early 1950; earlier he served as

Denver Mint Skips Silver During June

Not one silver coin was produced at the Denver Mint during the month of June, according to its figures released in the "domestic coinage executed" report issued by the Bureau of the Mint in Washington.

The Denver Mint confined its operations to minor coinage—it executed 16,258,100 five cent pieces and 78,772,400 cents, for a total of $1,600,629 worth of minor coinage.

The Philadelphia Mint's minor coinage output fell below the Denver figure—it listed $833,600 in five and one-cent pieces—34,520,000 cents and 9,768,000 nickels.

Philadelphia Mint manufactured 262,963 proof sets in June, a year's low. Total proof set production for the year now stands at 1,489,149. Last year for a comparable period, only 728,951 proof sets had been produced.

A complete six-month mint report can be found on Page 46.

Philadelphia resumed the manufacture of quarters for the first time in four months—it reported 6,988,000 pieces. It executed 11,980,000 dimes also.

Coinage executed for the Philippines reported by Philadelphia Mint officials was a total of 100,000 one-half peso pieces of silver.

Cent, dime, quarter and proof set production figures for 1961 are ahead of last year's totals for the same period, but 1961 output of nickels and halves is below last year's first six-month total.

Stop, Shop New Firm Name

Stop and Shop is the name of the new coin shop opened at 904 West Sunrise Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., by Melvin Jacobson.

Jacobson brings to his new firm many years of collecting and mail order business experience. He will specialize in U. S. and foreign coins and stamps.

"We will continue to supply coin dealers throughout the United States with coin mounts and coin jewelry at jobber prices," Jacobson said.

Kansas Man Injured In Holiday Accident

Jack Klausen Jr., Kansas City, Kansas, is recovering from injuries received in a Fourth of July holiday accident. Providence Hospital attaches say his condition is good.

Klausen, a member of the Heart of America Numismatic Association, is an Army veteran and has been attending Kansas University.

as head of the Denver Mint to succeed Mrs. Alma Schneider.

"Old-timers would more likely remember me as Fern Cornell," she said. "I was born in Denver and graduated from North High School. My father, Howard Cornell, was a Denver police officer for 27 years.

"But the thing most people recall about me was that I was one of 10 sisters."

It was through one of her sisters, the late Mrs. Homer F. Bedford, that Mrs. Miller got into politics.

"I started campaigning for my brother-in-law when he decided to run for county assessor in Weld County," she said.

Thirty years later, Bedford is state auditor. In the intervening time, Mrs. Miller has done precinct work, served 10 years as vice-chairman of the Weld County Democratic Central Committee and 13 years as vice-chairman of the Colorado State Democratic Central Committee.

She announced, she was not a candidate for re-election to the state post in March. Later her appointment as superintendent of the Mint was announced by the White House.

Just before she took the oath of office May 19, Mrs. Miller resigned as committeewoman in her local precinct, one of the few precincts in Weld County to show a Democratic trend.

"I think I've won a lot of people over to the Democratic side just by being kind," she said. "I've always made a habit of going to see the older, forgotten people. Too often, kind words are given only to the people who already have an abundance of good things."

She and her husband, a retired farmer, have lived on a farm two miles south of Platteville since they were married 48 years ago. One of the couple's three sons now operates the family farm. The Millers also have five grandchildren.

"I think living in a rural area has helped me," she said. "You can't avoid getting into a lot of activities there."

One of these activities has been her work with the Mizpah Club.

"The Platteville cemetery was all run down so we organized the club to improve and maintain it," she said. "The city has since taken over the care of the cemetery but you'd be surprised at the letters I still get from former residents who want me to put a bouquet on a particular grave."

In fact, she recently made 14 such floral arrangements one morning before going to the Mint.

Raising flowers is one of her favorite hobbies and she's an active member of the Platteville Garden Club. Not long ago, she led the club's fight to preserve Ft. Vasquez as an historic monument.

The four-lane highway between Denver and Greeley was scheduled to go right through the fort, one-fourth mile from the Miller's home.

"We went to the highway department and got them to split the road at that point," Mrs. Miller said. "It would have been such a shame to have the fort torn down. It was built in 1836 as a fur trading post. Later it was used as a stopping place on the stagecoach lines.

"Some people say that settlers went there for protection against the Indians but actually they went to Ft. Lupton when there was an uprising."

Ft. Vasquez now is located in the center of a large traffic island. The first courthouse in Weld County, a log cabin, also has been moved there.

"And we persuaded the revenue department to build a log cabin for its port of entry station," she said. "We hope someday to have a museum on North-eastern Colorado history at the site."

Another of Mrs. Miller's hobbies is accumulating history of that area—a portion of the state

Iowa Events On New Medal

Advance orders are being taken for the Iowa Conservation Field Day Plowing Match medal, another in the Medal Collectors Club of Iowa series, Jack Mummey, secretary-treasurer of the club announced today in Marshalltown, Iowa.

The medal is being issued to commemorate the state plowing match and field day, to be held in Marshalltown September 22.

Delivery will be made near August 15, Mummey said.

The medals will be struck in bronze, silver and aluminum, all one and five-sixteenths inches in size. The bronze are 75 cents each or three for $2. The aluminum are three for $1 or 35 cents each. Sterling silver medals cost $3.25 with a limited issue of 5,000 upon advance order only. There will be 10,000 bronze and 2,500 aluminum pieces struck.

Maine Club Picks Big Date For Show

The Camden Y Coin Club will hold its first annual coin auction at the K of C Hall on Water Street in Rockland, Maine, during the 1961 Lobster Festival on Saturday, August 5.

The Hall will overlook the festival grounds, according to the committee.

There will be free parking for the owners of bourse tables, and a chance for exhibitors to load and unload their cars in front of the door. Cases of all bourse tables owners will be under police protection; an officer will be on duty in the hall all day.

Doors will be open from 10 a.m. with the auction to start at 4 p.m. The bourse tables, two and one-half by eight feet, cost $5 for a full table and $3 for a half a table.

Reservations may be made to Mrs. Wendall Dennison, Rockport, Maine. Bid sheets will cost five cents; they are numbered in series.

The famous seafood festival at Rockland is a tradition with its largest lobster boiler in the world, a mile long parade, entertainment and amusements. The festival itself is held from August 4 to August 6.

Illinois Event To Be July 30

The fourth annual summer Coin Festival and Auction will be sponsored by the Mount Vernon, Ill., Coin Club Sunday, July 30, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on the second floor of the City Hall building, Eleventh and Main Streets in Mount Vernon.

Admission is free and the public is invited, according to Robert T. Wall, who is in charge of publicity.

The auction will begin at 2 p.m.; a list of coins for the auction is available. Further information may be received from Clyde Howell, 1215 Polk Street, Mount Vernon, 1, Ill.

she feels is much neglected by historians.

"I'm interested in it because my family and my husband's family were early settlers of that area," she said. "In fact, my husband's maternal grandparents and my mother's family came across the plains together from Wisconsin together in 1863."

Mrs. Miller had always known her husband but it wasn't until she spent a year teaching school in the Platteville area that romance blossomed.

"I started teaching elementary grades right after high school," she said. "I think I made about $35 a month."

Today, at 68, her salary is $13,730 a year as superintendent of the Mint.

MENTION "COIN WORLD" IN ANSWERING ANY AD!

Iowa Medal Club's new release . .

Shawnee Hills Medalists of Harrisburg, Ill., is the striking agency; the artist is Dan Satterfield.

A plastic holder for the medals is also planned by the Medal club, to be available at about the same time the medals are ready for delivery.

Huffman Heads Oklahoma Club

Kenneth Huffman was chosen president of the Skiatook, Okla., Coin Club, succeeding Bill Francis, at an election meeting held recently. Other officers for 1961-62 include:

Andy Thompson, vice president; A.M. McIntosh, second vice president, and Dorothy Thompson, secretary-treasurer.

Next meeting of the club is scheduled for Monday, August 14, at the Skiatook Health Center, starting at 7:30 p.m. Interested collectors are invited to attend.

Mrs. Priest Marries California Realtor

Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, who served as treasurer of the United States during the Eisenhower administration, and widow of Roy Priest, Arlington, Va., was married to Sidney William Stevens, a realtor, in Beverly Hills, Calif., on June 20.

Her three children were present for the service.

Coin World Used As Check By United States Customs

By Hans M. F. Schulman

The two issues of Coin World dealing with foreign counterfeits are being used as checklists by the U.S. customs in determining if counterfeit coins are coming into the country or not. We are continuously on the watch for new evidence and up till now we can safely state that the information mentioned in Coin World has been proven to be accurate.

We also have been asked to investigate further the situation of the 20 and 10 zloty of Poland, 1925, and for that purpose we called our good friend, Barney O'Hea in San Francisco who rather recently visited the Warsaw Mint.

He pointed out that all the pieces sent directly from or bought directly in Warsaw are from the original mintage bags which were not opened in 1925 or later, but that counterfeits have been made in Germany and that it is quite easy to determine which ones are and which ones are not. The counterfeits have a much lighter gold color than the original ones and are a few grains lighter in weight.

Great trouble is fomented in Mexico by those who counterfeit foreign silver dollars. Fortunately a year ago your columnist had a chance to get a sample of all of the pieces by a well-minded collector who bought one piece of each counterfeit made and who sent it to us for auction.

Since then these crooks have not made new fakes and with the list in our possession and in the possession of the F.B.I., not too much danger can happen.

Let me repeat again and again that your best protection is to buy foreign coins only and exclusively from responsible dealers and particularly those who are members of the International Association of Professional Numismatists or the Professional Numismatists Guild, the U.S.A. professional group.

If any of these dealers sell counterfeits with a purpose they can at once be thrown out publicly from these associations. Membership lists are available at all times.

For the P.N.G. write to Sol Kaplan, 413 Race street in Cincinnati and for the I.A.P.N. you can write to me, Hans Schulman, 545 Fifth avenue, New York City 17.

I intend to fly overseas to the Rome conventions and visit a few other places and I will report to all of you from there as I did last year.

I have a European address where mail reaches me fast and if any of the readers will be in Europe between August 23 and September 23 please drop a line to Hans Schulman, c/o R. Haller, St. Albansvordstadt 17, Basel, Switzerland, and maybe we have a chance to meet somewhere for a cup of tea and a numismatic chat.

Additional advice for those who go to Europe numismatically... We were flooded with questions after the June 23 vacation issue of Coin World. Many readers going to Europe (why didn't you all make the coin tour possible?) intend to visit different places than those mentioned in the article and wonder if numismatics could cheer them up in those other places.

For those people I want to mention today that almost any town of any size in West Germany has a coin club meeting once a month like in the U.S.A. and they have a secretary who is always available for contact. Hamburg, Bremen, Baden Baden, Cologne, Crefeld, Aachen, Dusseldorf, Hannover, Brunswick etc. etc., each city has a meeting and if a list is required I will be pleased to make one up for you.

The same applies to Italy where almost any town has its numismatic club but no list seems to be available at present. For those touring Italy by motorcar I suggest to contact Oscar Rinaldi & Son in Casteldario near Mantova in northern Italy on the way from Milan to Venice.

Oscar is the enterprising editor of the popular magazine, "Numismatica", which has a wide circulation in Italy and he receives reports about all meetings. He would be able to guide you.

Apart from that, a visit to Mantova is worth the while. If his office in Casteldario is not open, he can be contacted in Verona, another picturesque north Italian town where he is so well known that you just ask for the "Casa di Guglietta," Juliette's house.

In England there are fewer clubs but all of the clubs have a combined association with a secretary. The secretary of the "British Association of Numismatic Societies" is Dr. G. M. Metcalf who lives at 27 Selwyn Road, Cambridge.

He can tell you where to meet the coin clubs in Leeds, Manchester, Cambridge, Rye, Glasgow, Nottingham, Birmingham etc. etc. I also have a detailed list which I could have copied if needed by any of the readers.

In Holland there are coin clubs in most big towns, too, and not only cousin, Jacques Schulman, 448 Keizersgracht, Amsterdam, telephone 33380 (English spoken) will direct you but you can contact the Royal Numismatic Cabinet in the Hague and ask the secretary for the information if you are not in Amsterdam.

The meetings are in Dutch although all Hollanders speak English well and they would make you feel so at home that you may never want to leave.

The other countries do not have as many numismatic societies as Germany, Italy and Holland and our information will suffice.

In Portugal the seat of the Portuguese Numismatic Society is not in Lisbon but in Porto, four hours by train north of Lisbon, a very picturesque town, of old historic value. The address of the Society will be gladly given on request.

Numismatists in trouble in Europe: News has been reaching us from Europe of two numismatists who got into difficulties with the local laws.

Our good friend, Robert Hecht, an American, has run afoul of the Italian authorities on charges of exporting ancient coins and antiquities without the required export license which Italy insists foreigners must have.

In many countries it is a serious crime in the eyes of that nation to export art objects which the nationals believe should remain in the country.

We in the U.S.A. do not at present have such a law, but Coin World mentioned recently a law case involving New Mexico historical documents which tends to have similarity with the above.

We advise travellers to Europe to be careful in exporting important coins or antiquities which fall under this law and to get export licenses before taking things out or have the dealers from whom they were bought secure such licenses for you. We hope that Robert Hecht will extricate himself from this predicament. We do wish him luck.

Goeffrey Hearn, a London dealer ran against English law in matters pertaining to the English code, but numismatics were not involved. Unfortunately for Goeffrey the error committed was not lightly taken by those who wanted to sue him and the English courts did not take same lightly either.

We all know that laws in one state and another or in one country or another differ greatly.

Both Mr. Hecht and Mr. Hearn may not have done anything wrong if their residences had been in other parts of the world, but as the situation stands, they are in serious trouble today and we hope to hear that they soon get out of it.

This was a dark week for numismatists.....

PERSONALIA. We were quite surprised the other day switching on the artistic television channel 13 in New York to watch Betty Furness' program, "At Your Beck and Call".....and whom do we see there in all his numismatic glory? Nobody less than charming Bill (Kay Coin Service) Selfridge. The program has a panel of experts from one and one-half hours who must answer questions put to them by the telephone audience.

Since the topic was coins, Betty had an enormous pile of questions telephoned in to answer and Bill could have stayed for two days to get through all the questions.

He did very well in answering the silly and the good questions very ably and if there existed a (Continued on Page 12)

However unsolicited material can not be acknowledged nor returned unless accompanied by return postage and self-addressed envelope. We can not be responsible for coins sent unsolicited although every effort will be taken to safeguard them.

A Statement Of Policy On Questionable Coins

It should be obvious to everyone in the coin field that certain coins are illegal. These include counterfeits and stolen coins. Other coins are unethical, such as altered dates, altered mint marks, and fake star commemoratives.

Dick Johnson

But there are a number of other numismatic items that cannot legally be held by collectors because of our present laws. Included are such items as gold certificates, gold bars, and 1933 gold coins.

Outside of these items there is a kind of no-man's land where certain coins have been questioned, some have been confiscated by the Secret Service, all without a clear-cut statement of what actually is legal and what is not.

Off metal coins have been confiscated! Masonic pennies have been picked up! Foreign gold coins dated after 1933 have been declared legal in some cases, illegal in others—all at various times!

Due to a large number of requests lately, we have formed a policy which is our interpretation of the present situations. This policy is for Coin World advertisers to use as a guide in what to advertise, to protect both advertiser and buyer. This policy statement will be found on page 6.

Probably the confiscation of the racketeer nickel brought the situation to the attention of collectors more than anything else. However, confiscations of coins by the government has been going on for at least eighty years.

Since the situation is uncertain for many of these questionable coins, the logical thing for us as collectors to do is to examine our own field, make our own decisions of what coins we want to keep, and then meet with the proper government officials to iron out this problem once and for all.

The logical voice to speak for all collectors is the American Numismatic Association. Admiral Oscar Dodson, President, has taken the first step in naming Dr. J. Hewitt Judd, Omaha, Neb., to head up the committee to study this situation.

Dr. Judd is an excellent choice for chairman of this committee. He is author of the book on pattern, trial, and experimental pieces—the very coins that have come under the questioning eye of government investigators for many years.

Many of the coins questioned are completely legal, and have a long history of being collected by numismatists. There should be no question on the following items: numismatic restrikes, electrotypes, certain engraved coins, lucky or framed cents, pattern, trial, and experimental pieces, and numismatic errors.

Likewise we would like to see the legal status clarified on Saudi Arabia gold discs, on off metal errors, on racketeer nickels, and on foreign gold coins dated after 1933.

Frankly, we would like to see gold certificates returned to legal status. The unspoken rule on these lately is: it - is - still - illegal - but - you - can - keep - them - if - we - don't - receive - a - complaint - on - you basis. Once the Secret Service receives a complaint on a collector who has a gold certificate, they have to act on the complaint.

Quite a few gold bars have historical significance. Here is another area where we would like to see the law changed to protect the numismatic items while continuing to perform its anti-gold-hoarding function if necessary.

Coin World, meanwhile, has established its policy, while we wait for this entire situation to be worked out.

Letters To The Editor

Once again you have shown your disregard for the ordinary collectors. First by the $2 minimum ad and now by the subscription increase. Coin World's head now looks to me like the hippopotamus on page 37.

James A. Duff
Bethlehem, Pa.

Enclosed find my check for $5 for two more years of Coin World. I hate to see the subscription rates go up but like every thing else the cost of publishing a paper must go up.

I am glad to see that you are giving your early subscribers a chance to renew at the old rates. I feel you are putting out a real fine paper and each week I learn something else new about coins.

I have only been collecting for about a year and have learned a lot from your paper. I am looking forward to your trend column of Canadian coins. If it is half as good as Jim Kelly's column it will be a big help to me as well as other collectors. I have obtained a lot of coins through the Trade columns.

I have one question to ask and that is: Why do so many of the coin dealers that run ads state that they do not want orders of under $2, $5 and some even $10. Don't they realize that many a business has gone out of business because they did not want the little buyer.

There has been many a time that I have wanted a certain coin but did not buy it for it was under the dealer's minimum order and I did not feel I could afford more coins at the time or else he offered nothing else at that time that I needed.

Once again thanks for the fine paper and keep up the good work.
Bob Privett
Oak Harbor, Wash.

Many thanks for the sample copy of "Coin World". I do not care to subscribe at this time. I have been collecting for many years but find little of interest in your paper. The ads seem to cater largely to novices and to the roll-hoarding speculators. However, I suppose we must accept this as a trend of our times.

I feel that you are doing the science of numismatics a thankless service by informing the unenlightened. Even little comments, such as the following are very helpful—

"First Cent Coins

"The first American coins to have the word cent on them were the Talbot, Allum and Lee cents, minted in 1794."

Where in the "world" do you find such classic gems of misinformation?

Howard H. Kurth
Schenectady 8, N.Y.

I'm glad you read the sample copy down to the four line fillers, Howard. I'll admit our error in this statement, but won't you subscribe just so you can write us again when we goof?—Editor.

I have purchased numerous coins from various advertisers in Coin World and other numismatic publications. Many of these coins I have sent back because they were up-graded and not as advertised. Some I have received were as advertised, but few.

It's about time such an organization as R. C. D. A. was organized. We need it bad. Coin collecting is a pleasure many of us enjoy. Let's keep it clean. Why make a dirty racket of it? Evidently some of the advertisers have never become acquainted with Brown and Dunn. Coin World can do a lot to put an end to this kind of practice.

Let's also stop such grading as G-VG, F-VF, etc. I have purchased coins graded as such. When received they were only G or Fine. Sometimes the imagination has to be stretched somewhat to arrive at that grade. And there is no more evidence of VG or F whichever the case may be. We all pay a premium for a needed coin, so let's all demand that we get the grade we are paying for.

If any collector who reads this and has had a similar experience, tell Coin World about it and who the dealer is. We collectors are the backbone of numismatic publications. Without us there would be no paper, and no dealers to advertise. Let's all strive to make coin collecting a pleasurable hobby and not a racket.

Warren L. Gates
Lafayette, Ind.

I see I have only one week left of my subscription. Thought I'd better get busy and renew. Sure would miss Coin World. Would like the bonus gift for my mother. She didn't think much of coin collecting, but I have finally gotten her interested and often tease her about how she used to tell me it was foolish. Thanks for a fine paper. I especially like Collectors' Clearinghouse and Fair to Very Fine, although I enjoy the whole paper.

Mrs. Jerome Kaeck
Oshkosh, Wisc.

I am very sorry to have to attack the good will of Louis H. Waldman of Warren, Ohio, but for the good of all concerned I must try and repair the harm he has done, as his ideas about gold are solid fiction.

When an object is made of nothing else except the one material which appears outside, it is "solid." Solid brass is brass all the way, solid bone has no air hollows, and solid alnico is pure alnico with no iron core, no copper and especially no local concentration of aluminum, nickel or cobalt as these three must be thoroughly, evenly, smoothly mixed according to the alnico recipe.

Solid gold is pure, bullion, one hundred per cent, 24 karats, 1,000 fine, Au (chemical symbol), any of these.

Though gold is harder than lead it is softer than copper and therefore too weak for coins, rings or watches. It is made into alloys or mixtures, usually with copper, and curiously the result is almost always harder than copper or gold alone, but the strength depends on the exact proportions, just like gasoline, beer or cement.

Those proportions are measured in 1000th or in 24ths, and though a thousandth is called a thousandth, a 24th is called a karat (nothing to do with diamonds where a karat is a weight of 3.2 grains, not a proportion) and 18 karats is 18/24ths or 75 per cent, 750/1000ths, or 750 fine. (It sounds like if a 1000th could be called a "fine", but not really).

All acceptable modern coins of gold or silver are made 900 fine or 9/10 precious; this comes to 21.6 karats but nobody used karats for silver, (why not?) Older coins were made in 22 karats (916.66...fine) or in 925 fine, or any other proportion that a mint director or a king fancied.

Solid-18-karat gold means solid 18, not solid gold. It also means that it is 18 all the way through, not 17½ in the middle, or worse, lead.

When a skin of gold, thicker than paper, is glued, welded or attached any other way to an object, it is called gold filled. That filling can be solid too, unless it is made of several layers.

Gold plating is a layer ranging from 1/1000th of an inch down to 1/500000, so thin it will wear off if you look at it too long. It is measured in microns which are exactly 1/25400"; 1/20 18k means 1/20th micron of 18 karats, or 1/508 000th" of ¾ gold. Not enough to purchase one hair with it, but it looks brilliant. Even that may or may not be "solid".

Just for information, 16.45 karats of gold & copper is almost 50 per cent of each by volume, not by weight, and famous electrum is an 18k alloy of gold and silver, beautiful and expensive.
Philippe Bernheim
Fall River, Mass.

Early in 1960, before Coin World was born, I subscribed to two coin magazines, one a monthly and the other a bi-weekly. Then I joined the A.N.A. so I get The Numismatist. I now get only Coin World and The Numismatist. I get all I need and can keep up with from these two publications. I like the fact that Coin World comes every week.

WE PROUDLY ANNOUNCE

The Presidential Art Medal Series

THIS PROGRAM is dedicated to offering a series of finely sculptured, extremely high quality Presidential medals. The first medal of President John F. Kennedy will be followed by one of Abraham Lincoln. This is a continuing program and three or four medals a year will be struck until the series is complete. New medals will be struck thereafter as Presidents are inaugurated. This exclusive offering will be a treasured possession whether you desire only one, or the entire series.

MEDALLIC ART COMPANY, the only American organization devoted exclusively to sculptured bas-relief will strike the entire Presidential series.

MR. RALPH MENCONI was commissioned as the designer and sculptor of this first in a series medal. Mr. Menconi was selected on the basis of his recognized skill in full portrait and high relief work. More information on his work is offered in a leaflet supplied with each medal.

THE MEDAL'S SIZE is slightly larger than a half dollar and 1/3 thicker to provide correct balance. This medal is the ideal size for display in an album, which will be offered at a later date.

LIMITED PRODUCTION of the precious medals, the high quality found exclusively in Medallie Art Company's work, and the practical size of this medal assure its increasing value. Production of these medals will be strictly limited to the quantities listed below.

DEALER INQUIRIES are invited.

The John F. Kennedy Medal is offered as follows:

Platinum (Pure).....	10 pieces, serially numbered.....	SOLD OUT
Silver (.999+).....	6500 pieces, serially numbered.....	$10.00 ea.

a member of the United States Air Force.

"I picked up a small amount of foreign currency at that time," recalled Musser, "But I became a serious collector in 1952."

He attended the Morris Harvey College, Charleston, W. Va., and received his master's degree from Marshall College, Huntington, W. Va.

In commenting upon the currency foreign paper money market, Musser said:

"While I claim no prophetic powers, common sense and collecting trends indicate that the time was never better for picking up some of the reasonably priced material in this field."

He said in collecting foreign paper money it is not uncommon for a very scarce note to be obtained for less than $2 and a rare specimen for $5 or under.

Collector Elected

Musser heads the two-year-old World Paper Money Club as president; this organization is dedicated to the study and collection of all types of paper money.

North Carolina Coin Club Organizes In Burlington

Burlington, N. C., is the home of the state's newest collectors' group, the Burlington Coin Club, organized recently with 31 charter members, according to a report from Mrs. P. K. Burleson who was chosen secretary at the organization meeting.

Other officers include Ronnie J. Qualls, president; Adrian Wilson, vice president, and Mrs. Charles E. Kernodle, Jr., Miss Frances Watson, Jack S. Lindley, B. F. Evans and P. K. Burleson, board of governors.

Expressed purposes of the Burlington club are to provide means for exchange of coins, to increase knowledge of numismatics, and to encourage contacts between persons interested in coin collecting as a hobby.

Interested collectors are welcome to attend the club's meetings, the next one being scheduled for Saturday, July 29, in the Civic room of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association in Burlington, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Coin World Advertising Policy . . .

NUMISMATIC ITEMS THAT CAN BE ADVERTISED AND QUESTIONABLE ITEMS THAT CANNOT BE ADVERTISED

GOLD CERTIFICATES. Technically gold notes cannot be legally held in numismatic collections, therefore they cannot be advertised in Coin World. These include all Friedberg numbers 1166-b through 1225.

GOLD BARS. It is illegal for an individual to own current gold bars unless he holds a license issued by the government for this purpose. Current gold bars cannot be advertised.

1933 GOLD COINS. This pertains to the 1933 eagles and double eagles which apparently were not officially released. They cannot be advertised.

COUNTERFEITS. It is illegal to possess, buy or sell counterfeit coins or paper money. Some counterfeit Colonial and Continental paper money and broken bank notes are held in numismatic collections and are probably legal. However, we have adopted the policy that no counterfeits of any kind can be advertised in Coin World.

ALTERED DATE COINS. Coins with altered dates or altered mint marks are a fraud upon collectors. While not illegal at this time, legislation prohibiting these is pending in Congress. Since they are unethical in the coin field, they cannot be advertised in Coin World.

FAKE STARS. Fake stars on commemorative half dollars come within the realm of altered coins and therefore are unethical in the coin field. They cannot be advertised in Coin World.

STOLEN COINS. This should be obvious, but stolen property cannot be advertised since it is illegally held and title cannot pass to a new owner.

ALTERED CONDITION COINS. This category includes buffed or polished "proof" coins, where uncirculated coins are "doctored" until they look like proofs. It also includes coins treated with a chemical that brings out otherwise illegible dates or other worn-out features. (Where the entire coin is treated, a poor coin looks like a VG or better; however, closer inspection reveals the acid pits all over the surface.) These coins are of questionable ethics in the coin field and they, or their chemical, cannot be advertised in Coin World. This includes "replating" coins which is an attempt to change condition unnaturally.

PROCESSED 1943 CENTS. It is unethical in the coin field to advertise processed 1943 steel cents as "uncirculated" or "bright." Coin World will accept advertisements for 1943 processed cents only if the word "processed" or some synonym is included in the advertisement. "Replating" is not a synonym, but a different situation.

FACSIMILE PAPER MONEY. It is unethical in the coin field to advertise reprints of any paper money as genuine. Coin World will accept an advertisement for these only if the word "copy" or "facsimile" or some such synonym is printed ON THE BILL and included in the wording of the advertisement.

RESTRIKES. These fall into three categories:

1. COUNTERFEIT RESTRIKES. These were made to pass at face value for legal coins, are a type of counterfeits, and are therefore illegal. They cannot be advertised.

2. NUMISMATIC RESTRIKES. These include the facsimiles of Colonial coins made by Dickson, Wyatt, Tatham, Mickle, Idler, A. S. Robinson, Betts, and Bolen (described by Richard Kenney in his "Struck Copies of U.S. Coins"). This category also includes the restrikes of the Florida and Rhode Island tokens, certain half cents, large cents, and silver dollars. These are legitimate numismatic items and it is permissible to advertise them in Coin World. They should be described fully including the term "restrikes".

3. COPY RESTRIKES. These are copies of famous, scarce, or rare coins. They may be accepted for advertising in Coin World but must bear the word "copy" or some such synonym STAMPED PERMANENTLY ON THE COIN. Also the word "copy" or some such synonym must appear in the advertising wording. Samples should be sent to Coin World when the first advertisement is submitted. This policy holds true irrespective of the metal, size, or color of the copies made. However, copies in which only one side is used with a completely different reverse from the original, such as an advertising piece, can be accepted without the word "copy" struck on the coin.

SAUDI ARABIA GOLD DISCS. These coins, made in 1945-1947, have a questionable legal status and advertisements of these are accepted at the dealer's risk of confiscation by the U.S. Treasury.

OFF METAL ERRORS. These coins are struck on a metal for which they were not intended, like a quarter or nickel on a copper planchet. They are of questionable legal status at the present time and advertisements of these are accepted at the dealer's risk of confiscation by the U.S. Treasury.

RACKETEER NICKELS. These 1883 gold plated coins have a questionable legal status and advertisements of these coins are accepted at the dealer's risk of confiscation, whether coins are genuine or otherwise.

FOREIGN GOLD DATED AFTER 1933. The Treasury department has allowed some foreign gold coins dated after 1933 to remain in collectors hands, others it has confiscated. We prefer not to accept advertisements on these until the matter can be worked out with the authorities. This category, therefore, is questionable, and Coin World would accept advertisements of such only if a dealer insists, and then at his own risk.

ELECTROTYPES. These are copies of rare coins made to resemble the originals. They are made by museums, etc. They have a long history of collectibility and are completely legal. In advertisements, however, they must be labeled "electrotype."

ENGRAVED COINS. This category includes Masonic cents, elongated or rolled-out coins, and the "love tokens" of the last century. These are all U. S. coins that have been engraved. They are not intended to have been spent after the engraving, and have a long history of collectibility. They are legal, and can be advertised.

LUCKY OR FRAMED CENTS. These are discs, usually aluminum, with coins in the center. The coin is not mutilated. They are legal and have a long history of collectibility. They can be advertised.

PATTERN COINS. These are test coins made at the mint to test dies, designs, metals, etc., and include all pattern, trial, and experimental pieces. At infrequent times in the past, their legality has been questioned. However, they are completely legal. They were sold or released by the Mint and have a long history of collectibility. Any pattern coin can be advertised in Coin World.

NUMISMATIC ERRORS. With the exception of the questionable off-metal errors; numismatic or mint errors and freaks are completely legal, having been officially released from the Mint. They have a long history of collectibility. They can be accepted for advertising in Coin World.

CALIFORNIA GOLD TOKENS. These are tokens made in imitation of the gold dollars, halves and quarters. They are legal and have a long history of collectibility. They can be advertised, regardless of when made.

CONFEDERATE REPLICAS. These are replicas of the Confederate coins, officially authorized but never issued, and also those neither authorized nor issued and so are "fantasy" coins. They are legal and can be advertised as such.

ANNOUNCING...

The purchase intact of the magnificent collection of United States large cents formed by Mr. Kenneth W. Fuller of New Hartford, New York. This collection is one of the choicest we have handled. Included are such items as: many different varieties of 1793 cents (including an Uncirculated chain cent), dozens of different 1794 cents including rarities, 1795, 1796, 1799, 1804, etc. Part of this fine collection has been sold previously. The Fuller 1794 cents will be featured in the Empire Review, ready for distribution about August 1st. Sample copy free on request.

A SUPERB OFFERING OF TRANSITIONAL COINS

Transitional coins are gaining in interest and popularity faster than any other United States series. The classification of transitional coins includes those coins of an adopted design issued before that design was officially adopted. As transitional coins become more widely collected the price will increase. For this reason we believe that transitional coins are excellent investments at today's prices. The transitionals that have achieved wide recognition and listing thus far... the 1856 flying eagle cent, 1859 and 1860 dimes and half dimes, etc. have increased greatly in value. As you read the descriptions of the transitional coins below you will note that all are rarer than the 1856 flying eagle cent, and all are equally as desirable. The fact that they are underpriced becomes obvious.

1858 FLYING EAGLE CENT, with laurel wreath reverse as adopted officially in 1859. Copper-nickel. Brilliant Proof. Fewer than 100 pieces known. $495.00.

1858 INDIAN CENT, obverse and reverse precisely identical to the regular issue 1859 Indian cent in all ways except for the date. The addition of an 1858 Indian cent to your collection will change it from an everyday item to a showpiece and center of attention. About 200 pieces known. Copper-nickel. Br. Proof. $475.00 or two for $950.00 (limit, two per customer).

1858 INDIAN CENT. Obverse design as adopted in 1859, reverse design as used on regular issue 1857-8 flying eagle cents. Fewer than 100 pieces known. Copper-nickel. Brilliant Proof. $495.00.

1859 INDIAN CENT. Obverse is the regular issue 1859 Indian cent. Reverse is the oak wreath and shield design as adopted in 1860. About 700 pieces known (compare to c. 1500 pieces known of the 1856 flying eagle). The 1859 reverse of 1860 cent has added interest as there is the possibility that they were released in limited numbers as a regular issue late in 1859. Copper-nickel. Choice Brilliant Uncirculated. $325.00 or three for $850.00 (limit three per customer).

1863 INDIAN CENT struck on a thin bronze planchet as regularly adopted in 1864. One of the most significant transitionals as it was the forerunner of all bronze cents issued since that time. Brilliant Proof. $325.00 or three for $850.00 (limit three per customer).

1863-L INDIAN CENT. With L on ribbon as adopted in 1864. Much rarer than a Proof 1864-L cent which sells for about $5000.00. Copper-nickel. Brilliant Proof. $1700.00.

1863 TWO CENT PIECE, obverse and reverse identical to 1864 large motto 2c in all respects except the date. The only transitional coin of the 2c denomination... and one of the very rarest coins in the transitional series. Bronze. Brilliant Proof. $750.00.

1865 SHIELD NICKEL without rays. Exact design of shield nickel without rays as issued from 1867 to 1883. Nickel. Brilliant Proof $975.00.

1865 SHIELD NICKEL with rays. Exact design of 1866 and 1867 rays nickels. At least a dozen times rarer than an 1867 with rays Proof nickel. Nickel. Brilliant Proof $975.00.

Trends Of Today's U.S. Coin Values

Widespread Use Of Trends Found

By Jim Kelly

333 West First St., Dayton 2, Ohio

During a recent trip I had the opportunity of visiting with quite a few coin dealers. The fact that Coin World was conspicuous in every shop and office was very gratifying but no great surprise. However, when I found that "U. S. Coin Trends" had been cut out and displayed on bulletin boards and by other various methods, I must admit I was not only pleasantly surprised but pleased with the fact that dealers found this department so helpful.

Jim Kelly

Frankly, this pleasant experience took some of the shock and pain out of the prices paid for material purchased at several of these shops.

I mention the above incident as it was our original intention that Trends of Today's U. S. Coin Values should be as helpful to dealers as to collectors.

While the prices quoted are the average retail values, it is a simple matter for the dealer to buy on a percentage less than these prices, the amount depending on the demand and the profit necessary on sales.

Substantial evidence that we have at least in part accomplished our goal is, indeed, gratifying and encourages us to strive for any improvement which we believe will be more useful to both dealer and collector.

Very shortly all roads will lead to Atlanta and to the A.N.A. convention. We are conducting the official auction for this convention and are fortunate to have outstanding consignments of Confederate material, uncirculated rolls and many rarities.

Catalogues are available for this sale by writing directly to our office in Dayton. They will also be available at the convention. We are looking forward to renewing old acquaintances and meeting many new friends made since we started writing for Coin World just 67 weeks ago.

Alabamans Strike Token For Civil War

Another Civil War Centennial commemorative coin has been announced, a 50-cent size goldline token struck for Henry County, Ala., according to a report from William Nordan of Abbeville, a director of the Henry County Civil War Centennial Committee.

Companion piece to the coin is a wooden nickel, round and slightly larger in diameter than the 50-cent piece. Both were good for face value of five cents and 50 cents in either cash or trade through April 26, 1961, at any bank or place of business in Henry County.

The goldline coin was inscribed "The Confederate States of America" and "Deo Vindice", Feb. 22, 1862, with the figure of Lee on horseback within a wreath, on the obverse, with the value and identification on the reverse.

Quantity struck was 3,000 gold tokens and 5,000 wooden nickels, Nordan said. Those remaining are available to collectors on a first come first served basis, at $1.50 and two for 25 cents, from Nordan at box 212, Abbeville, Ala., with 300 left of the coin and about 1,000 of the nickels.

Warrensville Forms Club

Community officials of Warrensville Heights, Ohio, were invited to attend the first open meeting of the recently organized Warrensville Heights Coin Club, scheduled for Wednesday evening, July 26, in the Municipal building 4301 Warrensville Center Road, to help the club get off to a good start.

Main item on the program, in addition to welcoming remarks from the officials, was to be a talk entitled "The Amateur Collector" by Herman Pressman, to include some of his personal experiences in collecting.

At the organization meeting, Dr. Walter Loveland was chosen president, with Rocco Russo and Bob Winchell as first and second vice presidents, respectively. Other officers included Art Sandstrom, treasurer; Norrene Harting, secretary, and Claudia Buddenhagen, corresponding secretary.

Indiana Club Sets Permanent Meetings

The third Tuesday in each month has been established as the permanent meeting dates for the recently organized Chain of Lakes Coin and Stamp Club of Albion, Ind., with the Albion fire house as the site. Any interested collectors are invited to attend the sessions.

pean travelers that the Vienna Numismatic Society meets each Wednesday from 6 to 8 p.m. in the "Gesellschaftsheim" No. 3. "Am Heumarkt 1" (the building of the Mint). Visitors welcome. The participants generally meet before socially at 5 p.m. in the "Cafe Muenzamt", Heumarkt 3, for a cup of coffee.

After the meeting they meet for dinner at the Restaurant Fiege, Heumarkt 5. In Graz the meetings are always Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Hotel Daniel. Bahnhofplatz and in Vorarlberg in Dornbirn every third Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Parkhotel and also each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. between November and June. Visitors welcome everywhere.

Calcoin news received, Number 3, Volume 15, Mitchell and Kappen continue their depression scrip articles. This is numismatics at its height and we are proud to know this research team intimately.

Seaby's new list has a series of offerings of Ceylon coins of importance and interest, including a 4% stuiver bar. Paul Tinchant has a new list No. 661, of 64 Rue de la Loi Brussels. He never fails to send a list every month, already for 45 years. There was to be a July 19 sale at Glendining in London, ancient and modern coins in gold and silver, mostly English, small sale, 300 lots.

Walter Breen sends us the Metropolitan Numismatic Journal No. 1 for May-June, 1961. Anything Walter does numismatically is worth to see and to stop and take inventory. Since it deals with U.S. coins only, this column is not the one to review it.

However, let me say one thing. It is interesting and important. It is published by Metropolitan, 3012 Joshua Road, Lafayette Hill, Pa.

Bank Leu's bullion department, not to confuse with the numismatic department, sent its gold list June, 1961. This department is now under the magnificent care of Dr. Mildenberg and is purely a list sent by a bank selling gold coins, not guaranteeing where the coins come from. If you order from them and you want the numismatic department of the bank check upon your order, ask them to and then you have the good Leu service.

Attractive Archaeology, Volume 14, number 2, arrived. This is always a thrill as I am interested in that field. It is interesting to numismatists because many of the articles deal indirectly with coins like "Excavating a bronze age shipwreck" "Prehistoric man in Hawaii" and what they used for money in barter, etc. etc. and famous numismatist Willy Schwabacher's article, "The Olympian Zeus before Phidias".

SCAN-O-MATIC

The Detective of the Numismatic World!

Brings out every detail - every defect. Coins can be fed into the Viewer quickly and with no effort. As they move under the lighted magnifier, you can detect the smallest markings - every detail stands out brightly for examination. When you have studied one side, the coin is flipped over for you. Then it is ejected and another coin automatically takes its place to be studied. An entire roll can be viewed in minutes. Scan-O-Matic is a scientifically designed instrument that encompasses every feature necessary for the study of coins. It is fast - you can run hundreds of coins through in an hour yet, it can be used slowly for checking and rechecking the same coin without its being ejected. Accepts coins up to and including the size of a quarter.

hibit chairman; LeRoy Myers, president; Dick Collins, treasurer, and D. Bishop, bourse chairman. Photo from the collection of the Western Coin Journal, Reseda, Calif.

More than 2,000 collectors and exhibitors from the entire southern California area assembled for the Pomona Valley Coin Club's recent Coinarama, held at the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds.

R. E. Bayer, exhibit chairman, in commenting upon the show, said that in spite of the variety shown, the show lacked for exhibitors in several categories.

"The most notable gaps," he said, "were evident in the medieval coins, orders and decorations and the medals classifications."

"The 'specialized collections' group was highly overworked due to the catch-all character it implied."

"It is the suggestion of your exhibit chairman that future displays should consider this and try to separate the categories to avoid this general listing," Bayer concluded.

Plans are underway now for a two-day show next year at the same place. LeRoy E. Myers is president of the Pomona Valley club; Peter B. Payne, vice president; Allie Hickman, secretary; Richard Collins, treasurer.

Displays ranged from massed collections of Federal Reserve bank notes to Lincoln cents.

Winners in the various display categories were:

Group A, U. S. coins: first award and "best of show", a complete, uncirculated collection of "standing liberty" quarter dollars by Dan Harley; Orange County Coin Club; second award, Henri Heller, Temple City, and Carmel, Calif., Pomona Valley Coin Club; third award, Millie Fowers, Upland Coin Club.

Group B, U. S. paper money: first, second and third awards to Leroy Myers, Pomona Valley Coin Club.

Group C, ancient coin: first award, Al Beck, Convair Coin Club.

Group D, medieval coin: No entries.

Group E, modern foreign: first award, Millie Fowers, Upland; second award, Gilvin Ayers.

Group F, foreign paper money: first award, Bill Hogue, Orange County Coin Club.

Group G, orders and decorations: no entries.

Group H, medals: no entries.

Group I, odd and curious money: first award, Peter Payne, Pomona Valley Coin Club.

Group J, specialized: first award, Eva Myers, Pomona Valley Coin Club; second award, C. C. Frankenberger, Convair Coin Club; 3rd award, Florence Packard, Fontana Coin Club.

Group K, junior: first award, Laura and Leon Bayer, Convair Coin Club, and John Marshal Coin Club; second award, Joyce Frankenberger, Convair Coin Club; third award, Joe, Darryl and Barry Perlin, John Marshal Coin Club.

In addition special awards were given in the following display classifications:

First awards: trade dollars of the world, Harold P. Murphy, Convair Coin Club and Pomona Valley Coin Club; Craftsmen's tokens, Henri Heller, professional Convair Coin Club and Pomona Valley Coin Club.

Second awards: Small cents (series), James Dodd (junior division) Lakewood Coin Club, foreign type sets, Millie Fowers, Upland Coin Club; most unusual coins; Leroy Myers, Pomona Valley Coin Club; Confederate war bonds, Peter Payne, Pomona Valley Coin Club; cents, nickels and dimes series, Ollie Hickman, Pomona Valley Coin Club.

Third awards: Indian cents, Jack Lear (Junior Division) Pomona Valley Coin Club; miscellaneous paper money, Gilvan Ayers; collection of U.S. coin entirely taken from circulation coins Bert Pennock, Pomona Valley Coin Club; miscellaneous world coin, Bert Pennock, Pomona Valley Coin Club; modern foreign coin, Larry Flood (junior division) Fontana United Numismatists; Lincoln cents, Don Flood (junior division) Fontana United Numismatists.

Phillips Speaks At Alhambra Meeting

Cyrus Harold Phillips, a Bank of America lecturer on American money, spoke to the Alhambra, Calif., Civitan Club recently. Phillips is located at the Los Angeles office of the bank.

A crowd scene at the Mansfield, Ohio, show at high noon.

Dignitaries at the Mansfield, Ohio, Stamp and Coin Club recent show included, left to right, Mrs. R. R. Bennighof, general chairman; Mrs. Arthur Himes, co-chairman; Glen DeWeese, display chairman, and C. C. Shroyer, of Fremont, next American Numismatic Association president.

Mansfield Holds Show

Nearly 2,000 persons attended the recent Mansfield, Ohio, show sponsored by the Mansfield Stamp and Coin Club, held at Kingwood Center, 900 Park Avenue, West.

Mrs. R. R. Bennighof was chairman of the show with Mrs. Arthur Himes as co-chairman. Secretary was Mrs. Eleanor Moore; display chairman, Glenn DeWeese; auction chairman, William K. Kimes; registration chairman, Mrs. Sharon Nelson; special prizes, Ben J. Miller; publicity chairman, L. E. Chamberlain.

Leo Thomas won first prize in the senior classification with his gold type sets; second award went to Robert L. TenEyck who showed a general exhibit of coins and currency. The third award went to Dean Majors for a U.S. type set and a display of the progressions from ore to the finished cents, gold, silver, etc.

Honorable mention was awarded to Arthur Q. Himes for his silver dollar display and to Robert Howman for Crowns of the World, Civil War tokens and currency.

Stamp winners included Edwin Moor and David Johnson.

Junior coin classification winners were David Johnson for general coins; Lorraine Moore, Lincoln cents, and Dan Mainzer, mixed coin display.

Special prizes of the day went to Wesley Shreffler, Mansfield, and Carl James, Wooster.

During the auction a roll of 1950-D nickels brought $185. An 1850-O silver dollar, light etching arrows on the reverse, sold for $25.25; an 1878 $3 gold piece brought $125.

A Civil War theme was carried out throughout the hall with red, white and blue decorations, replicas, flags and pictures. Background music was carried over a P. A. system. Special guest was the next American Numismatic Association president, C. C. Shroyer, of Fremont.

Auctions Big At Sioux City

The Siouxland Coin Collectors Association of Sioux City, Iowa, organized only last January, is emphasizing its auctions at current meetings, with many lots of high quality of scarce material being offered, according to a report from the club.

At its July auction, almost $1,000 in gross sales was realized. Among the items were such coins as a 1798 bust type dollar in AU, two 1914-D Lincolns VF, a 1909-S VDB cent in EF, scarce commemorative halves in BU, gold coins in BU, and all proof sets from 1950 to date.

In charge of the club auctions are Donald McIlcece, J. T. Alvey, and club president Golby Uhler. They report that more than 200 lots have been consigned for the next auction, slated for the club's meeting on Tuesday, August 8, at the Sheraton-Martin Hotel.

Carnival In Fall

Sunday, October 22, is the date of the fifth annual Tri-City Coin Carnival, to be held at the Scottish Rite Temple, 33 W. Alpine Ave., Stockton, Calif., according to Gordon D. Rammer, president of the host Delta Coin Club.

Rammer, who resides at 2039 Polk Way, Stockton, 7, Calif., will be general chairman.

Governor Presents New Dakota Medal

The state of North Dakota has announced a new issue of its official Centennial medal in observing and celebrating the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Dakota Territory.

In announcing the second issue of the Centennial coin at ceremonies held in the State Capitol in Bismarck, Governor William Guy presented the first coin minted to Mark Mahto, a full-blooded Mandan Indian, who during the Centennial year is representing "Four Bears" the famed Mandan Indian chieftain whose portrait is featured on the front of the North Dakota Coin.

The second issue of the Centennial coin will feature a different reverse which displays the official coat of arms and motto "STRENGTH From the SOIL".

The coin will again be struck in bronze and nickel silver metals, with the nickel silver being limited in quantity as was the first issue. The front of the coin will remain the same as was the first issue, which showed the Mandan Indian Chief "Four Bears", a pioneer homestead and covered wagon.

The official Dakota Territory Centennial coin is available to collectors in either bronze or nickel

Saturday Night Event Date Nearing

The date of Saturday, July 29, slated for another of the famous "Fifth Saturday Night" coin auctions and show is nearing, officials of the Piedmont Numismatic Society of Newton, N. C., officials remind. It will be held in the Community room of the Citizens Savings and Loan building on the Court Square in Newton.

Doors open at 3 p.m., with the auction scheduled for 7:30 o'clock. Admission is free, with free refreshments and free bourse tables for as many dealers as space allows. Membership in the Society is not required for participation in any activity of the event, and collectors from anywhere are invited to attend.

Mimeographed auction lists are available; grading is guaranteed and no sale is final until both sides are satisfied, nor is any fee charged for lots offered for auction, according to secretary J. V. Stewart.

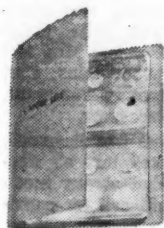

Attendance at the "Fifth Saturday" Shows has grown to near convention proportions, Stewart said, with collectors and dealers attending from seven states.

Ohio Club Meets July 30

Featuring an 80-lot auction emphasizing Type Coins and gold, the Southwestern Coin and Gun Club of Mt. Healthy, Ohio, has scheduled its next meeting for Sunday, July 30, at the Lakewood Armory, 9355 Pippin Road, Mt. Healthy, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Auction is to start at 2 o'clock.

At a special organizational meeting, George A. Karwisch Jr. was elected president and general secretary of the club. Other officers chosen included:

Bruce Stowe, vice president for coins; Nick Fantetti, vice president for guns; Jim Nolte, junior vice president for coins; Mrs. Mel Egbert, secretary for coins; Carl Garber Sr., secretary for guns, and Bob Wall, treasurer.

Safety of the club was discussed, and a rule adopted that no weapon may be loaded at any meeting. Violations will call for expulsion from the club. In addition, a safety committee was appointed, comprising Karwisch, Frank Smith and Charles Steele.

Other business of the session included a decision to affiliate with both the American Numismatic Association and the National Rifle Association, and an announcement that the club members are insured against personal and property damage liability.

Next Sunday's meeting will be the 5th since it was organized, and it is expected that membership will reach the 250 mark by the close of the session.

MANA Plans Keep Virginia Club Occupied

Plans as host club for the Middle Atlantic Numismatic Association convention at Hotel Chamberlin, Fort Monroe, Va., October 20-22, are keeping members of the Virginia Peninsula Coin Club, Newport News, Va., busy these days.

Bernie Littlepage, as convention chairman, said advertising contracts for the convention program are available.

Dr. C. A. Bolt, MANA president, said: "Do not stay away from this convention or you will miss probably our best convention ever planned by any of our host clubs."

The Virginia Peninsula club has another project, too—it plans to present an award to the member who rendered the most distinguished service to numismatics in 1960.

Bernie Littlepage is chairman of the committee to select the person; V. E. Wornom, Donald Roberts, Col. Wheeler Hunt, Connie Fields, John Gearhart and Bob Schlege are members of the committee. Presentation will be made at the club's annual banquet in January.

The club now has 94 active members, according to Hiram Bowers, club secretary; newest members include Arthur K. Clow, Harold L. Moore Jr. and James D. Nandley.

IF YOU'RE MAD - IF YOU'RE BROKE - OR IF YOU'RE NOT SELLING!!

FOLKS...

I swear I was absolutely sober when I wrote last week's ad. Sometimes I just feel good. Hope you people have bought me out by the time you read this. If not, go back and look over my list of type coins.

One of my customers has a fine 1796 quarter for sale. Anyone interested at $895.00? The new Red Book is so very far behind on this type of material, and never will catch up. Just send me a check and I'll tell Wayne he sold a coin. Of course I personally guarantee it, and return privileges are automatic. Nice coin!

Anyone got a truly BU type II $1.00 gold piece? I'll pay $100.00 each for all I can get. AU coins much less, of course.

Got a high priced coin you want to sell and get top dollar for? Send it to me to examine, grade, and offer in my ads on a commission basis. It doesn't take much commission, when I'm using your money.

I pay $100.00 each for BU 1909-SVDB cents. Especially when writing ads at 2 A.M.

My business is my hobby—

SHOTGUN

A COUPLE OF RARE ONES

1918-D over 17 BUFFALO

Extra fine, with full sharp horn and of course sharp clear overdate. An exceedingly rare coin, almost never offered. Unfortunately, this piece has a soft porous surface, as a result of being buried. I dropped it into a fine to AU set, and it matched quite well, being at least the equal of the VF specimen. These coins have recently been sold at around $1000.00 EF, and $2000.00 or more uncirc. One man I know wants $5000.00 for his coin.

Send me your check, and if you are not fully satisfied, return for an air mailed refund. I thought enough of the coin to pay nearly $300.00 last night at the coin club. Keep in mind the extreme rarity of this piece. $375.00

1918-S over 17 QUARTER

A solid fine, as per Brown and Dunn. The date is full and clear, with the 8/7 obvious and undisputable to the naked eye. Just the right grade for a man with a nice circulated set. I sold one earlier this year VF-XF to a BID of $415.00, so this one is certainly worth — $209.50

GOLD

On occasion, I pick up a few pieces of gold. In particular I have an eye for any very choice piece which comes my way.

$1 1850-O, Fine, possibly once looped. Quite scarce, with a mintage of only 14,000. $22.50

$1 1855 TYPE II, 2 pieces, each VF+, quite rare as type coins. None of the usual bends or surface marks. Investment material each $55.00

$2.50 1912 BU, 1925-D BU, 1928 BU, each choice piece $18.75

$3 1874 a brilliant uncirculated gem. Full soft textured mint lustre. Only the very slightest trace of bag marks. Not one in 500 is like this. Next year I'll want to buy it back for $275.00 or more. This year, it's only $219.50

$5 1905 BU, almost good enough to go in the same set with the above $3.00 gold. Better than your buddy has in his set. $23.50

$20 LIBERTY, Averages VF-EF. 5 pieces $207.50, 10 pieces $410.00

$ DOUBLOON, Lima mint under Charles IV (just like my son) VF-XF, so quite choice. A showpiece $92.50

PATTERNS

Priced so the average collector can afford that touch of variety for his collection. Think of the stories you can tell uninitiated visitors about such a coin.

50c 1870, brilliant proof, Judd 958, AW 921 Silver. Mounted in custom 4x4 holder $69.50

3c NICKEL, 1868, brilliant proof. Judd 618, AW 692. Larger than regular issue 3c. $49.50

10c SILVER, 1869, proof. Judd 702, AW 787. Inscribed Standard Silver and date on reverse. $42.50

10c SILVER, 1870, brilliant proof. Judd 867, AW 994. Almost twin to the 10c and 50c above. $45.00

GRAB BAG

I don't know what sold out of last week's ad, because at this writing it's still next week's ad. There is a box on my desk where I toss odds and ends of coins as I buy them. Here is what came out tonight:

I hope that some small dealers will be able to take advantage of my lot prices on 10 proof sets. I will gladly match any advertised buying price for proof sets 1936-1942. What do you have?

HELP!

I need roll sets of BU cents, 1941 to 1960. I'm swamped with orders and can use 1-10 sets with ease at

$425.00

What roll sets do you have?

ABOUT THESE ROLLS

I'm always real happy when I have the opportunity to buy scarce rolls at ridiculously high prices. Just because my competitors are sold out of a tough roll and offer to pay only 2/3 what I offer is no indication that I will not buy at my buying price. Quite the contrary. Just look at the 1952-S Cent, for example. I'll take a bag at my buying price right now, if anyone wants to ship.

However, it comes to pass from time to time that I have more of a common date than I need to keep my stock balanced. Thus, I may not need another 50 rolls of some $1.00 to $4.00 roll every time they are offered to me. After all, Ft. Knox is in Kentucky (or is it Washington where they spend it?). Anyway, the point I want to make is this — my offer-to-buy prices are legitimate. If you have an accumulation of rolls, I'll buy them all at my buying prices. If you have scarce rolls, I may even pay more on occasion than I advertise to pay (but not too often). But, if I am stocked up on some common roll, I may say thank you, but no thanks.

Anybody care to sell me a bag or two of 1958-P and D Cents?

1960-D Small Date Cents BU

(I HAVE A BAG OR TWO)

Exactly 3 bags are for sale at $435.00 per bag this week only. When those 3 are gone, so are my low prices.

This is going to be another Canaveral special, headed for a high orbit.

For you white chip gamblers: 1 roll $5.00; 5 rolls $24.00; 10 rolls $46.00.

I will offer discount prices on lots of 10 rolls WHEN I AM ABLE TO. This week the same discounts apply as last week and on the same rolls.

My postage bill was over $200.00 last month. Don't forget to send 15c per roll to help pay it.

Also — all grading is Brown and Dunn — return privileges are automatic — visitors are still welcome — money is even more so.

BU - COIN SETS - BU

BU JEFFERSON NICKEL

1938-1960-PDS BU $86.50

I will hand-select coins from my roll stock to make up choice sets, as this has proven very popular. For you rich people, my exorbitant price is a ridiculously realistic $94.50

Those of you who desire 5 or 10 sets as an investment, why not call or write?

BU ROOSEVELT DIME

1946-1960-PDS BU $32.50

5 sets $95.00; 10 sets $310.00

Bu Washington Quarters

I don't care what price you see these sets offered at in various publications. They are very scarce, and I am paying $375.00 per set at my source. All sets are absolutely BU, satisfaction guaranteed. Please indicate your choice of albums when ordering. Remember, quality is the byword on these sets.

Trends Of Today's Canadian Coin Values

Varieties Create Catalog Problem

By J. E. Charlton
80 Richmond St. East,
Toronto 1, Canada

One of the most controversial aspects of coin collecting is the matter of varieties, and in Canadian coins this is particularly true. Following a recent talk at the Hamilton, Ontario Coin Club meeting, the writer was asked why the 1926 Far "6" nickel was listed in the Standard Catalogue and other coin varieties not recognized.

It was rather appropriate that this question should have been asked in Hamilton as I pointed out that a Hamiltonian by the name of Robert Low some years previously had discovered the difference in the distance between the top of the figure 6 and the maple leaf on the near 6 and far 6 varieties and this was followed by an article in the C.N.A. Journal.

The publicity resulted in a demand for the two types and it was soon found that the far 6 variety was about 20 times scarcer than the near 6, and collectors have willingly paid prices in proportion to the rarity.

Faced with a widespread demand for these coins and a general recognition by collectors that a set of nickels was incomplete without both the near 6 and far 6 1926 varieties, the catalogue felt it was his obligation to list both.

Most coin folders and albums now provide openings for both the nickels.

Another controversial coin is the 1955 Arnprior dollar. Despite denials by the Mint, the writer has a letter from the Playtex Company in Arnprior, Ontario, stating that a special order of silver dollars was obtained for an employees' Christmas bonus.

These dollars have only two partial water lines at the front of the canoe instead of the usual three.

The discovery of this variety occurred soon after the distribution and the Playtex employees found that collectors would pay a nice bonus for their "bonus" dollars.

While undoubtedly other dollars of this variety were issued in small quantity, it is a matter of history that the majority went to Arnprior.

Although learning of this variety early in 1956 through Rev. Woodhouse and Ray Hobin, the writer refrained from listing it until the publicity by others, particularly in the far west, and the sustained demand warranted it.

Space does not permit an involved discourse on the endless number of other varieties or freak coins.

More are being found constantly and as Hans Zoell has demonstrated, it is even possible to have a separate publication for them. For that reason the Standard Catalogue lists only those varieties in which the author and his panel of contributors feel there is sufficient interest to justify it. The catalogue has never been and never will be a means of promoting sales for coin varieties.

Ohio Club To Hold Fall Show

The Clark County Coin Club of Springfield, Ohio, has scheduled its fall Coin Show and Auction for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 10-12, according to a report from general chairman Everett Snapp, Route 2, St. Paris, Ohio.

Site for the Show will be the Hotel Shawnee in Springfield. Further information may be obtained from chairman Snapp or bourse chairman Jim Bird, 104 West 5th Street, Dayton, Ohio.

The Clark County club held a one-day Show and Auction on June 18, at the County Fairgrounds, attended by close to 700 persons, which Snapp also directed.

Pioneer In Exchange

Kamehameha I is generally regarded as the first of the Hawaiians to accept gold and silver as exchange mediums. When he died in 1819, he is reputed to have left some $200,000 in foreign gold and silver coins.

Club Stiffens Rules

The Kansas City, Mo., Numismatic Society, which is limited by rule to 60 members, has amended its by-laws so that any member missing three consecutive meetings will be automatically suspended.

Such a member then has two weeks in which to present reasons for non-attendance. These are reviewed by the executive board whose decision is final as to whether the suspension shall be "permanent".

With the acceptance recently of C. J. Willey as the 60th member, the Society's roster is now complete.

Cleveland Group To Start

An organizational meeting of what is to be called the Hillcrest Coin Club, comprising the South Euclid, Lyndhurst and Mayfield Heights areas of Cleveland, Ohio, was to be held last week at the Lyndhurst home of Edward R. Romey through the Cleveland Land Automobile Club.

Nucleus of the club is comprised of 10 collectors who signed up before the first meeting. Theme of the group is to be the enjoyment of coin collecting, and the avoidance of making it a serious business.

Interested collectors in the Hillcrest neighborhood should contact Romey through the Cleveland Automobile Club.

Fort Eustis To Have Coin Club

Fort Eustis, Va., is the home of a new coin club, organized in June. Membership is open to both military and civilian collectors, and any interested persons are invited to attend its sessions.

Meetings are planned on a twice-a-month basis, with an auction to be conducted at the first session and business matters at the second.

Information on meetings may be obtained from Robert E. Dymond, Building 152, apartment A, Fort Eustis.

Finds Mint Error

Joe Bennett Jr., Fort Myers, Fla., has discovered a mint error in a 1960 cent—the figure, 6, is missing.

Club To Try Bourse System

Nearly 100 members and guests attended the recent general meeting of the Vancouver Numismatic Society held at the Kerrisdale Community Center, Vancouver, B. C.

Leslie D. Copan, club president, reported to the membership that a system to allow every member of the club to part with duplicate coins in his collection by means of individual bourse tables would be held on a trial basis over a five-month period.

It was also announced that Copan had been elected a director of the Pacific Northwest Numismatic Association in a meeting held at Spokane.

Club Doubles Meetings

The Platte Valley Coin Club of North Platte, Nebr., has decided to meet twice a month during the summer, instead of just the first Wednesday. The club holds its sessions in the Blue Flame room of the Northwestern Public Service company.

Polish Convention Includes Coin Talk

During recent years numismatics has been one of the main topics discussed at the annual conventions of the American Council of Polish Cultural Clubs.

The five-day 1961 convention will commence on Wednesday, August 23 at the Pick Ohio hotel, Youngstown, Ohio, according to Judge Joseph F. Sawicki, convention officer. Copies of Coin World will be distributed to delegates who are coming from all sections of the United States.

National Coin Week Winners Elated

Proud and excited. These two words described members of the Panhandle Coin Club of Chadron, Nebr., when they learned they had won first place in Class B competition in the American Numismatic Association's National Coin Week. Left to right, seated, studying The Numismatist with the NCW story are Bonnie Walters, secretary; Frank Schell, president; and Jack Moeller, publicity director.

Coin Show September 24 At Clyde, Ohio, Armory

Featuring a special 200-lot auction with every lot having at least a $5 Red Book valuation, the Quad County Coin Club of Clyde, Ohio, has scheduled a one-day coin show for Sunday, September 24, at the National Guard Armory in Clyde, starting at 9:30 a.m.

General chairman has been named as Vern Barbour of Sandusky, Ohio, with William Wheelon, Fremont, as bourse chairman.

The Quad County group is the home club of C. C. Shroyer, next president of the American Numismatic Association, who helped to organize it and was its first president, in 1955. The club meets the second Monday of each month in the American Legion hall, on East Buckeye Street in Clyde.

Its officers comprise Dale Williams, Clyde, president; Barbour, vice president; John Ziegler, Fremont, secretary, and Charles Wolfe, Lakeside, chairman for exhibits and special awards. Richard Rader was recently appointed treasurer, serving for Robert Hawn who was seriously injured in an accident.

Gold Theme For Carolina Show In Fall

Gold will be featured at the North Carolina Coin Club convention auction, to be held at the Jack Tar Durham Hotel in Durham, N. C., October 13-14.

Bourse tables are still available; inquiries may be addressed to general chairman Edward Plonski, 3000 University Drive, Durham, N. C. Dealers are expected from Florida, New York, Georgia, Tennessee, Virginia, Pennsylvania and South Carolina.

"Convention facilities are ideal with Durham in the heart of the Piedmont area, and the 20 plus clubs that make up the North Carolina Coin Clubs," Plonski pointed out.

Among the items to be sold are an 1852 fifty dollar gold slug, 887 thousand, United States assay office type, an 1852 fifty dollar gold slug, 887 thousand Moffat Humbert type; gold pieces from Charlotte and Dahlonega mints including the very scarce 1843-C small date quarter eagle and the 1842-C small date half eagle.

Also to be sold will be 11 proof Morgan dollars, 14 proof trade dollars, 1836 plain edge Christian Gobrecht dollar, complete set of silver three cent pieces in exceptional condition, large and small currency, lazy two's, gold coin notes, cut sheets, odd numbered notes, consecutive numbered and autographed notes.

Ed Bell, Smithfield, N. C., will conduct the auction.

Coin Test

1—How many major die designs were used to coin the silver 3-cent piece?

2—In what year did the New Orleans Mint strike its first coins?

3—What were they and how many of each?

4—What is the explanation of the 1944 nickel without Mint mark?

5—Who designed the 1837 and 1838 dime and half-dime without stars?

Youth Tries To Sell Phony Gold Coins At New York Shop

A 17-year-old youth was arrested July 12 as he attempted to make a second sale of counterfeit gold pieces to a Jackson Heights, N. Y., coin collector, police report. He was identified as Richard Costello, 93-45 Broadway, Elmhurst, N. Y. The youth described himself as a laborer.

Costello was turned over to Secret Agent George Sershen for appearance in the U.S. attorney's office in Brooklyn to be placed on probation.

Costello, according to police, sold two coins for $10 each to William English who runs a coin shop at 89-17 37th avenue, Jackson Heights.

English called police when he discovered they were counterfeit. The youth first told police he found the coins; later he said they were given to him by an unidentified man. Detectives are continuing their investigation.

A 20-year-old coin collector, William Cochran, of Dahinda, Ill., pleaded guilty to conspiracy in connection with the theft of a coin collection from the home of a dead woman. Judge Daniel Roberts freed him on probation for a year and ordered him to pay costs of the case.

Darwin Johnson, 19, of Gilson, Ill., pleaded guilty to burglary and larceny of the collection. His probation plea is pending.

Officials said Cochran talked to Mrs. Eva Anderson before her death about the collection, and told the other youth where it could be located.

Mrs. Stella Wiczorek may have lost her chance to be a millionaire. She told detectives her apartment in Chicago was broken into and among the items stolen was a million mark German bank note.

A coin collection and strongbox containing cash valued at $2,185 was taken during a burglary of the home of Raley Wiles, Lafayette, Calif., stockbroker.

A coin collection was stolen from the home of John Siggard, La Crescenta, Calif., while he was vacationing.

Tom Millstein, Leawood, Mo., reported to police rare coins valued at $1,000 were stolen from the safe of the National Surplus Sales Co.

Robert F. Hasenhauer, Tucson, Ariz., said a coin collection and jewelry worth nearly $1,000 were missing from his home after he returned from a two-week absence.

Robert Earl Barnes, 27-year-old ex-convict, faces 12 felony charges following his arrest by St. Louis, Mo., county police who turned him over to metropolitan police for questioning and viewing by witnesses. He gave a St. Louis address.

Included in the charges against Barnes is a burglary count growing out of the theft of $1,200 in silver dollars and jewelry from the home of August Damm, St. Louis. Police said Barnes left his fingerprints in the Damm home.

The theft of a coin collection was reported to Fort Madison, Iowa, police by Marion K. Mosley.

Fay Smith, Fremont, Nebr., reports loss of a coin collection to police. Entry was gained by cutting a window screen.

"This is Mr. Monroe, he's one of the smaller coin dealers!"

Fair To Very Fine Unethics In Numismatics Concern Throughout Hobby

By James G. Johnson

Last week I talked about protection against "chiselers" in the ranks of both collectors and dealers, using the term to cover a good many forms and degrees of dishonesty. One of these forms is the selling of altered coins, knowingly or otherwise, and if a dealer sells one unknowingly, then he is not qualified to be a dealer. If he sells one knowingly, then he is a downright crook and should be in jail. Probably a whole book could be written about this kind of thing, under some such title as "Numismatic Ethics" (I would assume it meant Christian ethics as applied to numismatics).

Obviously, there is a great deal more that can be said than I can go into here. I do want to touch on one or two aspects of what might be called "Unethics in numismatics" in one degree or another.

My thoughts are touched off by some remarks in the news bulletin of the Chicago Coin Club, "Chicago Coin Club Chatter", under the heading of "The President's Message". This president happens to be Hugh Knight, coin columnist for the Chicago Sun-Times, among other things. I quote:

"Much has been said recently about the sudden rash of restrike pieces, and I would like to go on record as being against the striking of such pieces, unless.....

"If numismatic restrikes have telltale star or dash or some other marking to distinguish them from the original coins, then I would OK the restrikes.

"But in advertising these restrikes, they are termed 'coins', and in reality they are not. They were never issued as such. This form of advertising is false and should not be permitted.

"I would favor some form of legislation by the Professional Numismatists' Guild and other such organizations to curtail any future false advertising. And an announcement that any such pieces not marked, as stated above, not be accepted for advertising by any numismatic publication."

Here at Coin World we have been thinking about this same thing for some time. In this issue you are now reading, is one result of our thinking, a description of the type of advertising we will not accept. One such item is the imitation which does not say on it that it is an imitation. This is a step in the right direction, along the lines advocated by Chicago President Knight.

We may be going too far to suit some people, and not far enough to suit others. We have made a start, and I am proud that some of the wording in our statement of what we will and will not accept is mine. I commend it to your attention, a four-column advertisement somewhere in these pages. Please remember it is a "step". That is an attempt to curb some forms of "chiseling", and it should help a little. I can suggest as Knight does, that the dealers' associations do something about it from their end, although I am not optimistic that they will.

Another form of chiseling or, in this case, downright robbery, is found in the story on "Fake Proof Sets" printed in Coin World's July 7 issue, on page 1, borrowed from the bulletin of the Omaha, Nebr., Coin Club.

Fake proofs formed from "buffed" regular issue coins have been known, and this story refers to coins plated with "rhodium", about which I know only what the dictionary tells me. A way has been suggested which would make this precise fakery very difficult.

In our November, 1960, issue, Coin World printed a story from the Liberty Bell Coin Club of Philadelphia, telling of that club's (Continued on Page 34)

Missouri Festival First Summer Event

The Coin Festival to be sponsored by the Missouri Numismatic Society of St. Louis in the Statler-Hilton Hotel on Saturday and Sunday, August 12 and 13, is a highlight of the first summer the club has been active since its founding in 1938.

Always, up to this year, the group has adjourned for July and August. But increased interest in numismatics locally as well as nationally, induced the club members to vote for the summer activity.

Bourse, exhibits and an auction are slated to be the features of the Festival. Dealers from coast to coast, including some of the best known nationally, have made bourse reservations, making this Show a "stop-over" on their way to the American Numismatic Convention the following week in Atlanta, Ga., according to officials of the St. Louis club.

Exhibits will compete for awards, including cash prizes for the first four "Top" displays. The auction, comprising 150 selected lots, will be in two sections, the first at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, August 12, the second at 1:30 p.m., on Sunday. To help ensure better material, a charge of $1 was made for each lot consigned.

This is the second such Show ever put on by the Society, the first having been held last fall attended by close to 1,000 persons.

Students Travel

Two University of Washington students in Seattle, who have coin collections worth several thousand dollars—Gene L. Henry and John J. Brennan—are planning to attend the American Numismatic Convention and convert it into a coin-buying trip.

These are the newly elected officers of the Pacific Northwest Numismatic Association for 1961-62. Seated, left to right: Mrs. T. H. Abney, secretary; Al Watts, first vice president; Jack R. Koch, president; Mark Donner, second vice president; William N. Worth, treasurer. Standing, left to right: Ray E. Small, director; Charles Speight, retiring president; Richard Van Pelt, director; Leslie D. Copan, director; Byron Johnson, director; Mrs. Irene M. Alexander, director. Not present for the picture was Maurice Miller, director.

Over 700 members and guests attended the 18th annual convention of the Pacific Northwest Numismatic Association held recently at the Davenport hotel, Spokane, Wash., reported Mrs. Irene M. Alexander, P.N.N.A. general chairman.

Exhibits, a 52-dealer bourse and a series of auctions highlighted the three-day convention and show.

Over 1,500 items were sold at the auctions conducted by R. B. (Dick) McTighe of Spokane. The bidding was strong, particularly in the fields of so-called dollars, commemorative halves and Lincoln cents, comments Mrs. Alexander.

Plaques were awarded in four categories in the exhibits competition. The winners: Roy Geil, Kingston, Wash., best in U. S.; Ernest A. Meyer, San Francisco, best in foreign; Jack Koch, Moses Lake, Wash., most original display; Roy Geil, best in show.

A plaque and gavel were presented to retiring P.N.N.A. president Charles Speight of Springfield, Ore. A plaque was also presented to Mrs. Alexander "In recognition of services as general chairman of the 1961 P.N.N.A. convention."

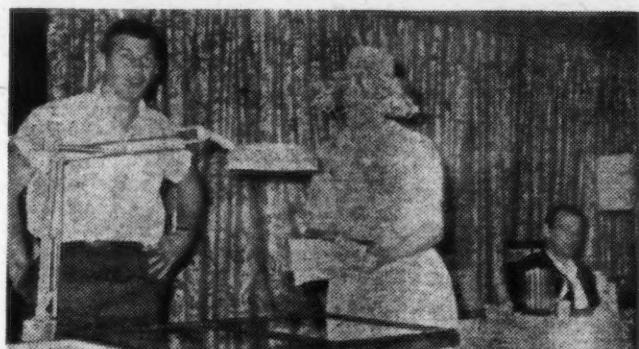

At the business meeting, the following were elected as P.N.N.A. officers for 1961-62: Jack R. Koch, Moses Lake, president; Al Watts, Salem, Ore., first vice-president; Mark Donner, Seattle, second vice president; Mrs. T. H. Abney, Seattle, secretary; William N. Worth, Portland, treasurer.

New members of the board of directors are: Byron Johnson, Seattle; Maurice Miller, Medford, Ore.; Richard Van Pelt, Salem; Mrs. Irene M. Alexander, Spokane; Ray E. Small Jr., Walla Walla, Wash.; Leslie D. Copan, Vancouver, B. C.; Charles Speight, Springfield, Ore.

Association membership voted to hold the 1963 P.N.N.A. convention at Portland, Ore., at the invitation of the Portland Numismatic Society.

Hosts for the 1962 and 1963 conventions will be the Seattle and Walla Walla coin clubs, respectively.

MENTION "COIN WORLD" IN ANSWERING ANY AD!

Appalachian Plans Progress

Mrs. Rosemary Jury of Knoxville, Tenn., didn't miss a bet at the recent Louisville, Ky., Coin Show — she sold Miner Kirk of Ashland, Ky., a bourse table (top photo) for the second annual Appalachian Convention of Coin Clubs, to be held at Knoxville, Tenn., with the Smoky Mountain Coin Club as host. Bank Employee Miss Irma Sentell borrowed Isaac Jaffe's Coin World to check for news of the September 8-9 convention in the center photo. Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Holden, in the bottom photo, members of the Smoky Mountain Club, check their custom-designed exhibit — Holden even makes his own holders. Mrs. Holden is a member of the staff of the Andrew Johnson Hotel in Knoxville where the conclave is to be held.

Geneva's 'Swedish Days' Feature Souvenir Tokens

Richard Erickson of the Geneva, Ill., Dry Goods Store hands Swedish Days half dollars to customers Donna Mielke and Charlene Jacobson. These gold-colored coins made handsome souvenirs of Geneva Swedish Days 1961 and were also good in cash or trade at any place of business or bank in Geneva. In the foreground is a replica of the two sides of the coin.

An attractive gold-colored souvenir token was circulated by merchants in Geneva, Ill., during the month of June in conjunction with Swedish days.

The souvenir coin not only announced the Swedish Days celebration but also commemorated the 125th anniversary of Kane County.

Designer of the souvenir coin was Merle F. Freier of Geneva who has utilized the Swedish dancers theme, now associated with Swedish Days, and originally created for use in past Swedish Days.

The souvenir coin committee came under the chairmanship of Harold C. Sondergreen. It was the function of the committee to facilitate the distribution of the coins by supplying each merchant with an adequate number.

Each coin was worth 50 cents in cash or trade at any place of business or bank in Geneva and was given by the merchants in lieu of change when a purchase was made in any Geneva place of business.

"The richness and quality of the coin," commented the Geneva Republican, "is well deserving of the pride of the citizens of Geneva and will provide a beautiful and lasting memento for years to come."

Wooster Club To Hold Picnic July 27

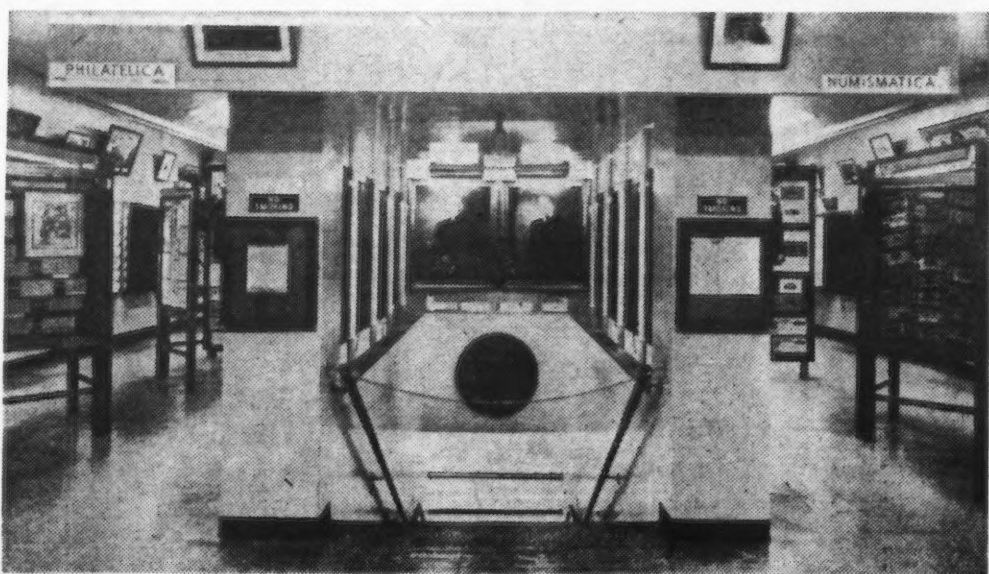

The Wayne County Coin Club of Wooster, Ohio, was scheduled to hold its July meeting at a picnic, on Thursday, July 27, to be held in Wooster City Park at the Woodland Avenue Pavillion.

Members and guests were asked to provide their own baskets with dinner set for 6 o'clock.

Early Dollar Shortage

Between 1792, when the U.S. Mint was established, and 1870, only 8,000,000 silver dollars had been coined. The silver dollar by the latter date was still virtually unknown.

Open House At Boys Town Soon

The Boys Town Philatelic Center at Boys Town, Nebr., will have open house on August 10.

Numismatists in the area of Boys Town, Nebr., have a treat in store for them on Thursday, August 10.

Open house at the PhilaMatic Center at Boys Town will begin at 7 p.m., according to the director, Msgr. Nicholas H. Wegner. An added treat will be the serving of refreshments during the evening.

The Center has one of the largest currency exhibits in the world, and the most modern type of coin display cases. In fact, the Phila-

Matic Center was first to show coins so both sides could be viewed.

Visitors will see an exhibit system with a total of 1,300 panes of glass, measuring 28 by 44 inches, so elaborate that one man has been mounting coins for display for two years.

Guests at open house will see 20 frames of general coinage, medals, tokens and all types of currency. The Center also has an extensive numismatic library.

Brinks Take Tokens To Jubilee Center

A Brink's armored truck recently delivered 4,000 brass tokens to Pawtucket, R. I., for use during the city's diamond jubilee.

These "coins" and 6,000 more will be legal tender during the jubilee; deadline for redemption is noon, August 28. The tokens were specially minted in Providence. A shipment of souvenir wooden nickels will also be made for the celebration.

Irvine Named Shenandoah Valley President

William Irvine has been elected president of the Shenandoah Valley Coin Club of Staunton, Va., according to a recent report from the club. He succeeds Frank Cacciapaglia. Other new officers include:

G. E. Myers, vice president, replacing Ralph Ewing; John Woebke, secretary, succeeding Wesley Stowers, and Mrs. Phyllis Puffenberger, treasurer, replacing Tom Eavers.

The Shenandoah Valley club, two years old, has a membership of 42 collectors. Interested persons in the Staunton area are invited to attend the meetings which are scheduled every other Thursday evening at the Staunton Y.M.C.A.

Retiring president Frank Cacciapaglia of the Shenandoah Valley Coin Club, Staunton, Va., is presiding for the last time as new officers are about to take over. Left to right are: Wesley Stowers, retiring secretary; John Woebke, incoming secretary; Cacciapaglia, and Mrs. Phyllis Puffenberger, newly elected treasurer.

The Romance of MONEY

By Ted R. Hammer

Use of metal coins can be traced far back, but the order in which they were used cannot be ascertained. Indeed, the order, if any, may well have varied from nation to nation — continent to continent. Ancient Greeks used iron money widely, although they are known today primarily for use of silver coins. Iron coins of Sparta are mentioned by Aristotle. Iron coins as well as copper are found in the early currencies of Japan and China. Lead was used in Burma in recent years.

Copper was a coinage mainstay from the start. Early Hebrew coins are chiefly copper. Until 269 B.C., when silver coins were introduced, a copper alloy was the only Roman money. Copper coins were used extensively throughout Europe. Copper was used in England until bronze came into use. Bronze, of course, is merely copper with tin or other metals that make it harder and wear better.

England used tin coins early and widely, probably because of the availability of the metal which was mined in Cornwall. In later years, England struck a half pence and farthing of tin. Some attempts at a pewter coin were made by American Colonists but the practice was not successful and not widespread.

As silver was the base of the better Greek coins, so too, it was the base of medieval coins. Use of gold coins is found in early civilizations, then disappears, only to return again. There is some evidence that early Europeans did not differentiate between the metals. Later, as it became apparent that silver was more scarce than copper and that gold was scarcest of all, the ratio changed.

Gold ingots and coins were in use early, however. Genesis provides the information that "...a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted and became into four heads. The name of the first is Pison; that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; and the gold of that land is good." Some early art shows trinkets of gold heaped on scales (when weighing the jewelry-money was necessary at each transaction).

New Michigan Firm Operating

A dream has come true for Martin N. Goebel, of Hastings, Mich. — he now has a new business which includes a coin department.

The firm, to be known as the House of Seven Gobels, features gifts and hobby supplies as well as the coin and stamp departments. Goebel will operate his television repair business from the center, too.

Located at 115 North Michigan street in Hastings, Goebel said today he has sold lots of coins, and that although the department is still modest, he hopes to expand it soon.

Russians used platinum money briefly. Nickel came into use in coins more than a century ago, first in Switzerland, then America, but chiefly as an alloy. Nickel, by the way provides sheer beauty in a large medal. Too soft to use as money except as an alloy, the wearing question does not rise in medals. Even the "nickel" of today is comprised 25 per cent of nickel and 75 per cent copper.

Iowa Club Plans Auction For August 27

Tuesday, August 1, is the deadline set for applications for bourse tables at $2 each, for the First Annual Fall Auction and Bourse of the Forest City, Iowa, Coin Club, scheduled for Sunday, August 27 in the Civic Auditorium in Forest City.

Reservations for the few spaces left should be made with club president Gene Morris, Forest City.

The event is slated to open at 12 noon for the Bourse. The auction is to be in two sections, starting at 1:30 and 3:30, with an intermission between. Following the auction, more time will be

Medals Gone In Alabama

There are no more Civil War Centennial medals to be had at the Montgomery, Ala., Chamber of Commerce, according to Tom Blake, manager.

In the spring edition of its quarterly publication, "Montgomery On The Go", the Chamber declared: "Sorry, but all 30,000 Confederate coins have been sold. The demand for the souvenir coin was beyond all expectations, and we appreciate the inquiries that have been made in wanting to purchase them. There will be no more made for resale."

The bronze replica of the Confederate half dollar was the first medal to come out this year celebrating the Civil War centennial. It was honored as a real half dollar until the celebration ended in the city in February.

One dealer, Charles Harbin Jr., 349 Tanglewood Drive, Montgomery, Ala., reported a few of the medals still available at two dollars each, but most Montgomeryans, proud of the Capitol of the Confederacy so steeped in history, covetously are holding on to their souvenirs.

available for the Bourse, according to club secretary Helen M. Ingebreton.

Final plans for the Auction are expected to be announced at the club's next meeting, Tuesday, August 8, at the Hotel Forester, starting at 8 p.m. Visitors will be welcome. At the last session, 35 members and 18 guests attended, with discussion of the Fall Auction as the main event on the program.

Answers

1—Five: three obverse and two reverse.

2—1838.

3—Half-dollar (20) (quantity unofficial. Beistle said "3", Yeoman quotes Coiner Rufus Tyler as saying "20", Mint Director said nothing); Dime (402,434 — Red Book); Half-dime (115,000-Breen, Red Book omits it from Mintage reports; Whitman's blue folder says "unknown" as to quantity).

4—Counterfeit—especially if it is made of other metal than wartime silver.

5—Christian Gobrecht.

Top Exhibits Planned

Featured in the exhibit section of the Third Annual Coinarama of the Santa Barbara, Calif., Coin Club, set for August 5 and 6 at the Mar Monte Hotel, in Santa Barbara, are slated to be some rare Russian medals, a 1913 "V" nickel, and one of the 24 original 1894-S dimes, according to club secretary Gwen Sentis.

Displays for competition will be in eight classes: U.S. coins, except gold; Coins before 1500; Foreign coins after 1500; Paper money; Medals, orders and decorations; Specialized, such as Mint errors, historical, educational, etc.; Gold coins; and Foreign or U.S. sets. Prizes, ribbons and a Best of Show trophy will be awarded.

During the Show, many special prizes will be given, the most outstanding being a St. Gaudens set of $20, $10, $5 and $2.50 gold coins.

Frank Roza, Stockton, Calif., has been announced as the auctioneer at the two-session auction. It will take place during the two afternoons of the Show. Roza will have just concluded crying the auction for the Central Coast Coin Club's first show, July 22 and 23, at San Luis Obispo, Calif. The Santa Barbara club's auction is to be held in the Cabrillo Pavilion across the street from the Mar Monte, and will be catalogued.

The bourse has been limited to 30 dealers and all space has been filled, according to bourse chairman Don Jurgensen. Armed guard service will be provided for security.

Coins Sold At Airports In Switzerland

The coin collector doesn't have to look very hard for a place to make his first purchase when he arrives in Switzerland by air.

At the Geneva and Zurich airports the Union Bank of Switzerland not only maintains a money exchange office, but sells gold coins of the world to collectors as well.

Gold pieces of such countries as Austria, Great Britain, Iran, France and Italy may be purchased as well as those of Switzerland.

"We sell gold pieces to collectors from all over the world," the manager of the Geneva airport office told a Coin World representative. "American collectors especially have done considerable buying here during recent years."

Most of the gold coins on sale at the Geneva and Zurich airport banks appear to have been dated before 1933; thus American collectors don't have to worry about U. S. Treasury gold import regulations in this case.

Though premiums are charged for the gold coins, because they are considered as collector's items, they can still be purchased at reasonable prices.

Foreign currency exchange banks in New York City also deal in gold coins for collectors.

campaign to have the Mint put "P" Mint marks on proof coins. Now, the president of that club has written us in connection with the Omaha story, and would like us to help "push" the campaign.

This I am glad to do. The club president, Joseph Weintraub, has sent Coin World a copy of a petition he and his club have put out. I quote part of its preamble:

"As a collector, I feel that some immediate visual distinction should be made between a regular minted coin and a proof coin. This Mint mark would also serve as a deterrent and additional obstacle to those who may make an attempt to "pass off" regular issue coins as proofs. In the past, many experienced collectors as well as dealers have been fooled on purchases that have amounted to vast sums of lost money. I most sincerely believe that this proposed Mint mark is a most vital and urgently needed change in our proof coin manufacture."

As in everything else, there will be differences of opinion on this. But I agree that all who agree with it write to Weintraub and tell him so, with permission to use your name. His address is: Joseph Weintraub, 1941 Devereaux St., Philadelphia 49, Pa.

Incidentally, Pennsylvania Senator Joseph Clark endorsed the idea, both in a letter to the Liberty Bell club and in writing to the Director of the Mint. Try your own State Senators.

When I am engaged in quoting, here is another short piece I would like to give wider readership to, this time from the "News Bulletin" of the Triple Cities Coin Club of Johnson City, N. Y., which in turn is quoting Risk's "Coin Galleries" price list. Herewith:

"... There is no such thing as Pirate money. Or Pieces of Pirate money. How can an 1807 Carolus dollar (or portrait-bust type piece of 8—or 8 reales) be called pirate money? Risk quoted an ad which said 'this coin was used during the Pirate Wars with Spain', and he commented that unless you count Napoleon Bonaparte as a Pirate, the description makes no sense. We agree."

What is said there is, of course, true. There is no such thing as genuine "Pirate money". The pirates stole plenty of other people's money but had none of their own. The origin of the phrase could have come from nowhere else than Robert Louis Stevenson's "Treasure Island", in which he has the pirate Long John Silver's parrot repeating "Pieces of 8, Pieces of 8".

Nor is there any question but what those "pieces of 8" were the Spanish 8-reales or Pillar dollar, but the pirates were a minority of people who used them. They were legal tender in the United States until 1857, for that matter. Many people who have seen the movie "Treasure Island" or read the book know the phrase, even if they have no idea of its meaning.

Calling them "Pirate money" is stretching a point quite some ways, and if it is intended to deceive, then it is absolutely and downright wrong. However, if they are advertised with a legitimate explanation, then I see nothing wrong in that, but the explanation should be there.

However, I suspect that some of the advertisers may not be too sure of the truth, themselves. My own first thought, when "pieces of 8" are mentioned, is of "Treasure Island" and pirates, but it never would have occurred to me to say bluntly, "this is pirate money", with any implication that pirates had a monopoly on it.

I am coming to the end of my "string" and probably will hear from some readers that two columns on the same general subject in a row are too many. Next week I'll talk on something different, but I would like to conclude with this idea.

Buying a coin at a certain grade and reselling it at a higher grade is a flagrant form of chiseling. Unfortunately, Whitman's "Blue Book" encourages that form of chiseling by omitting the higher grades as listed in the "Red Book". So it is easy for a dealer to call a coin "Fine" when he buys it at the Blue Book price, and then call it Very Fine or Extra Fine, even truthfully, when he sells it by the Red Book. I would like to see the Blue Book changed in that respect.

Brown and Dunn have done it. While many people do not agree with all the grading standards listed in their grading book, nor do I, it is still the best that has been set forth in that line and deserves encouragement. The same can be said of their new book, "Market Value Index etc." It is a step in the right direction.

Berry Greek Collection Subject Of A.N.S. Catalog

Volume one of a special catalog of the Burton Y. Berry collection of Greek coins, now on deposit at the American Numismatic Society Museum in New York City, has recently been published.

Called "Sylloge Nummorum Graecorum," this catalog, complete with 28 pages of plates, covers the collection from Macedonia to Attica, while the second and final part should be ready sometime in 1962, announced Sawyer McA. Mosser, A.N.S. executive director.

The catalog has been prepared so that it follows a format similar to Greek coin catalogs published in England, Germany, and other countries, reported Mosser. Thus, numismatists the world over can utilize this work.

"This catalog should become an invaluable research aid to students of Greek coinage," commented Mosser. "The coin illustrations are so sharp, for example, that students in many cases will not have to examine the actual coin itself while studying types, die varieties, etc.," he added.

The A.N.S. collection of approximately 500,000 items probably ranks now as the world's largest privately held numismatic collection. Only two public collections are larger—the British Museum's in London, and that at the Cabinet des Medailles de la Bibliotheque Nationale in Paris.

MENTION "COIN WORLD" IN ANSWERING ANY AD!

Rarities In Western Display

Visitors to Yellowstone Park can see a coin collection on display at the Half Moon Inn and Motel, 10 miles west of Cody, Wyo., on Highway 14 and 20 near the east gate to the park, according to Guy T. Kinder, who has arranged the display.

On display are 25,000 coins, medals and items of numismatic interest. Coins range from 400 B. C. to the present day. Among the medals is the famous Liberatus Americana medal by Dupre, still in the original velvet box. It was designed by Benjamin Franklin and struck in 1792.

There is an Indian Peace medal from George II of England dated 1757 and one in pewter given by George Washington, dated 1789.

The collection may be seen free from 6 a.m. to 8 p.m. seven days a week June 1 to September 1.

COIN MEDALS

Continuing from last week, the new series of medals soon to be announced in Coin World, will be known as COIN MEDALS.

This name has been selected for the series, since COIN MEDALS will have such a close familiarity to coins, they will be as much a part of your collection as the coins themselves. COIN MEDALS will be the connecting link between your coins, and other medals.

In order to give the sculptor and designer maximum freedom in his work, COIN MEDALS will be a magnificent 3 inches in diameter. The bronze medals weigh about 7½ ounces, and the silver issue will be of the same dimensions as the bronze and weigh over 8 ounces. A smaller medal would be more economical to produce, but COIN MEDALS are meant to become the standard medal series for coin collectors, and nothing will be sacrificed in making these medals of the finest quality and workmanship.

Next week, look for complete details in Coin World about the first medal in the COIN MEDALS series

COMMEMORATIVE HALF DOLLARS

Still have a good supply of those listed in my July 21st ad on page 26 of Coin World, so you can order any of those you may want. Of course, I get in all types, including Hawaii, Hudson, Vancouver, etc., but not enough to advertise, so they go to my Approval Customers. In twenty years, I have never failed to complete a customer's set of Commemorative Half Dollars, so if you want to be sure of completing your set, just send me a list of the commemoratives you now have, and a $20.00 Deposit, and we will start in. Then you pay $10.00 or more a month on the coins I send, and you get more coins as the balance drops. The same idea also applies to all other series, Half Cents to gold, paper money, etc. 1500 approval customers find this the easiest, most convenient way to build up their collections.

If YOU HAVE A SET OR ACCUMULATION of commemorative coins you want to sell, send it to me by Registered Mail, and you will get a real big check.

Rolla Club Holds Picnic

Rolla Coin Club, Rolla, Mo., held its third annual picnic on Sunday, June 11, at the Rolla Lions Club Park.

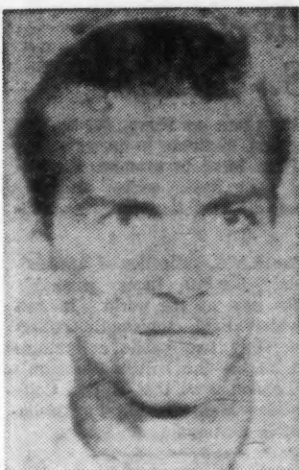

In addition to a coin swap, there was softball playing, horseshoe pitching, and a picnic dinner.

The club will not meet during the summer months. New officers will assume responsibility in September.

They are: Thetus Wardlaw, president; James G. Miller, vice president; Homer W. Briggeman, secretary; Sadie Steinmetz, treasurer.

Bank Holds Exhibit

A coin collection valued at $14,000 was on display the first two weeks in July at the Bank of Arlington Heights, Ill.

Sentenced

John DeLess, 21, Thornton, Colo., (above) was sentenced to 25 years in prison on his plea of guilty to the beating and robbery of Ray Lawrence, 57-year-old Anamosa, Iowa, publisher and coin dealer. A co-defendant in the robbery of Lawrence's home July 3, Douglas C. Hobert, Thornton, Colo., did not enter a plea. He is held under $30,000 bond.

Bradford Meetings Changed To Friday

The Bradford, Pa., Coin Club has voted to change its meeting dates to the last Friday of each month, and the next session of the club is scheduled for Friday, July 28, in the Hotel Emery, starting at 7:30 p.m.

At the last meeting, Dr. Hugh J. Ryan discussed the history of the paper dollar, and spoke on the origin of American money. Guests were Paul Studd, Allegany, N. Y., and Allen Canfield and Donald Shelley, both of Cuba, N. Y.

LOOKING FOR THAT CERTAIN COIN??

An excellent way to find it is to send me your want list, and let me price the ones you need in the grade you need them. Or you might like my approval service. If you can spend $10.00 or more a month on your collection, just send me a list of the coins you need, the grade, and the amount you'd like to spend a month. I'll send you a selection of which you keep the ones that please you, remit promptly, and in another month, you'll receive another selection.

Canadians Rename Head At Sherbrooke

Hartley F. Graham was named to his second term as president of the Sherbrooke, Quebec, Numismatic Society, elected at the "American Night" session of the club.

Lionel Lessard is the new vice president; Mrs. Leonne Caron, secretary; Eddy Echenberg, treasurer, and Rolland Giguere, auctioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brunelle, of Burlington, Vt., were special guests at the meeting; Brunelle is president of the Burlington Coin Club. Abbe Hector LaFrance, president of the Eastern Township Stamp Club, was also a guest.

A display of gold coins currently available at the bank of Nova Scotia was among the exhibits; American items were also displayed, and the auction was devoted to United States items.

Fred Smith is editor of the club's news letter; Francois Genest is librarian.

Seymour Club To Suspend For Summer

The Seymour, Ind., Numismatic Society has held its last meeting until Wednesday, September 13, according to reports from the club.

At the last session, William Wiley talked on the grading of Walking Liberty half dollars. Virgil and Jerry Long were accepted as new members, and Jerry Long received a special award of an 1865 three-cent piece.

Chicopee Juniors Form Club

Junior coin collectors of Chicopee, Mass., have organized their own club under the name of the Chicopee Junior Coin Club, with 10 charter members ranging in age from nine to 17.

Henry Ziolkowski Jr. was named president; Walter Stopa, vice president; Ronald Stopa, secretary; Michael Lazarchick, treasurer, and John Ziolkowski, sergeant at arms.

At present, the group meets at the Chicopee Stamp and Coin Company, 237 Exchange street, in a room donated by the owner, William A. Deslippe, who also acts as club advisor, at the members' request.

Meetings are held the second and fourth Wednesdays, at 6:30 p. m.

The Chicopee Junior Coin Club is interested in corresponding with other junior clubs to discuss mutual matters of interest and mutual problems. Mail may be addressed care of Deslippe, at 237 Exchange street, Chicopee, Mass.

Club To Vacation

The Carlisle, Pa., Coin Club held its final meeting until September on June 20, which featured an auction. Mrs. John Vogel received a special award at the previous session, at which three members were accepted, bringing the total to 24.

Morgan Gives Coins

J. Pierpont Morgan donated a number of ancient coins to New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art in 1917.

WORLD Circulation Dept.

CECIL WATKINS

Are You Moving In The Near Future?

If you are planning on moving in the near future don't forget to notify Coin World two weeks in advance so you will be assured that your favorite numismatic newspaper makes the trip with you.

In order to make this task easy for you and also to speed up processing in our plant, we are reproducing the regulation form for change of address that the United States Post Office issues.

You can secure this complete form in post card style at your local post office free of charge (all that is required is the postage) or you may clip this form from this column and fill out properly and mail to us.

SPEED DELIVERY OF YOUR MAGAZINE OR NEWSPAPER SEND THIS NOTICE TO YOUR PUBLISHER TODAY

Post here old address label from copy of publication. Omit items 1, 2 and 3 when address label is furnished.

1. NO. AND STREET APT. NO., P.O. BOX NO. OR R.F.D. NO.	2. CITY, ZONE NO., AND STATE
3. Show all additional dates and numbers included in address label (necessary for identification)
4. NO. AND STREET, APT. NO., P.O. BOX NO. OR R.F.D. NO.	5. CITY, ZONE NO., AND STATE
6. NAME OF SUBSCRIBER (Print or type)	7. DATE OF ADDRESS CHANGE

There are a few important rules to follow when you have a change of address. They are:

1. Type or print legibly all information required.
2. Be sure to state both old and new address, giving full name, street and city information.
3. Be sure to also notify your post office of your change so mail properly addressed to your new location will be delivered promptly. (This is required by postal authorities.)

"Coin World" Makes Ideal Awards

W. E. Burdick, president of the Strowger Coin Club of Northlake, Illinois, reports that his club made a definite hit with its members when the club offered two subscriptions to Coin World as special awards.

We quote from his letter as follows:

"The members of the Strowger Coin Club at Automatic Electric company in Northlake, Illinois, rate your newspaper the best in its field.

We have just given two members subscriptions as special awards. I know that they will not be disappointed in this kind of a prize.

If some coin clubs are looking for a good come-on, this is a good way to do it. I hope you can publish this letter in your column."

Thanks again.

C.W. Sample Copies Always Available

If your club is planning a special meeting in the near future, Coin World would like to be represented.

Just let us know the dates and we will forward you as many current copies of Coin World you feel you can use.

The following letter was received from the Redding Numismatic Society, Redding, California, and we believe it tells the story completely. We quote:

"The Redding Numismatic Society would like to extend their thanks for your thoughtfulness in sending the club free issues for our meeting of July 10th.

This meeting was Charter Night and we have 67 charter members now.

The issues of your paper were gratefully received and I am sure they will find many new numismatic friends. To many, this was their first Numismatic material and I am sure Coin World has many new friends in the Redding area."

Families Join Regina Group For Meeting

Family night was the theme of a recent meeting held by the Regina, Saskatchewan, Coin Club, held at the Canadian Legion Hall with 76 members and guests present.

Mystic arts of Ernie Plummer—which included a coin disappearance act—contests and special prizes were included in the entertainment of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Sheard of Regina won a special prize.

Displays included coins of Edward VII (1936) by M. C. Kinney; English and foreign coins and medals, Rene Gaudry; Canadian decimal coins, H. M. Van-Buskirk; English coins and Maundy money, T. J. Hardie; Canadian decimal coins, Roy Miller; Canadian military, war and commemorative medals, W. D. Murray.

The prize winning exhibit of E. E. Haddad which won an award at the recent Calgary Roundup was inspected, along with the award plaque. Display cases for the exhibits were provided by Rene Gaudry.

President M. C. Kinney accepted a gavel and pedestal presented to the club by Rene Gaudry, fashioned from beautifully finished oak with the names of the past presidents of the club engraved on tiny brass plaques and fastened to the base of the pedestal. The badge of office for future presidents was created by Gaudry.

Club vice president C. E. Boyd acted as master of ceremonies for the evening. Refreshments were served.

Coins At Open House

Oneonta Club Holds Bourse

Over 150 collectors participated in a bourse sponsored by the Oneonta, N. Y., Coin Club, held at the Oneonta Hotel on Sunday, June 11.

The following club officers acted as bourse officials: M. L. Bougouard, president; Edward Sapers, vice president; Bette Jane Jones, secretary; Henry Jones, treasurer.

Indian heads, Lincoln cents, and proof sets moved briskly at an auction put on by David Nethaway of the Oneonta Coin Co.

Worthington Club To Resume In Fall

The Worthington, Ohio, Coin and Stamp Club has adjourned for the summer. Meetings will resume in September, at the Conference room of the Park Federal Savings and Loan building.

Honored

A. Chaffin Barlow, Glendale, Calif., founder of the Glendale Coin Club, was honored recently with a plaque from the club for his work in behalf of its programs. He is a member of the San Fernando Valley, Los Angeles and Southern California Coin Clubs, and the American Numismatic Association. Since Barlow's retirement in 1953, he has devoted much of his time to numismatics.

Stevens Point Club Is Formed

Stevens Point, Wisc., is the home of a new collectors' group, the Stevens Point Coin Club, formed in June.

James T. Dunn was chosen to lead the club for a one-year term, with Roman Cooper elected vice president, and Mrs. George Mattlin, secretary-treasurer.

Charter memberships will be held open until October 1, the group decided. Meetings will be held in the American Legion Clubrooms. Date and time may be obtained from any of the officers.

MENTION "COIN WORLD" IN ANSWERING ANY AD!

Coins, Medals Exhibited At Metropolitan Museum Of Art

The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York city maintains an extensive collection of coins and medals.

Rather than the numismatic specimens being placed together, they are integrated with other items in the many separate collections of the museum.

For example, American pine tree shillings and various other silver coins of the 17th century are shown along with other examples of American silver—trays, silverware, etc.—of the Colonial period.

Medallic art in gold of the ancient is shown as a part of a special display, and here a hoard of gold staters of King Croesus of Lydia, 560-547 B. C., is exhibited.

Greek and Roman medallic art is illustrated by innumerable items, including jewelry, amulets, and coins. Only a few coins are on open display in this section of the museum, but a research collection of several thousand Greek and Roman pieces is maintained. Students of ancient history frequently use this numismatic collection.

One of the most striking displays of coins at the Metropolitan is a rare set of nine Celtic gold pieces of the second quarter of the first century B. C.

These coins of the tribes of the Morini and Nervii, who flourished in the central and western parts of Europe, were unearthed in Belgium some years ago and placed in the Metropolitan.

The coins are placed on open exhibit to show that the Celts were highly skilled as metal workers.

The Metropolitan's collection of medals from all periods of history is outstanding.

One of the noteworthy exhibits consists of a large group of Italian medals struck during the Renaissance period. A typical item is a portrait medal of Alfonso V, King of Naples, executed by Pisanello in 1449.

Portrait medals of this type were in great demand by ruling monarchs and the nobility because they could be reproduced easily and given to friends. It was more difficult, of course, to reproduce paintings for this purpose.

Medals served a very important practical purpose before the development of photography, students point out.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art, located at Fifth avenue and 82nd street, is open every day from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., except Sunday when it is open from 1 to 5 p.m. Admission is free.

HOT ROD'S
MONEY TREERodney R. Parsons
Spencer, IowaIndiana Club Grows Rapidly

T/Sgt. James Clere, vice president of the Bunker Hill Air Force Base Coin Club, Indiana, says their club has grown by leaps and bounds. It was formed last October with the help of Noel Hutchin, secretary of the Kokomo, Ind., club. Sgt. Clere acts as auctioneer at the meetings. His wife, Linda, shares her husband's enthusiasm and attends the club meetings with him.

Spadone Guest At Union Club

Frank Spadone of the Ampere Coin Shop and his 1943 copper cent were the stars of the show at the first anniversary party of the Union County, N. J., Coin Club recently.

Earlier Spadone visited the club with three 1909-S VDB cents.

A business session, an auction and refreshments were features of the meeting.

The club extends an invitation to collectors to visit; it meets at the Polish National Home, 300 Roselle Street, Linden, N. J., the fourth Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m.

Talent Variable

One authority has stated that a talent was worth 750 ounces in gold. However, the value of the talent varied greatly with the time and place.

Dearth Of Literature On Game Counter Topic

By Russell Rulau
San Diego, Calif.

One of the most intriguing of all types of numismatic emissions is the game counter, popularly known by its German name, spiel marke. The Lauer firm of Nuremberg, Germany, produced many American counters with this wording inscribed, giving rise to the name here. Few collectors know very much about these pieces; fewer still collect them. There has been little or no literature about them in English; not too much has appeared in other languages either. (A few exceptions known to the author are listed at the end of this article.)

While playing a game of poker, men seldom study the poker chips they use—a glance at the color of their stacks, a rapid mental calculation as to how much they can afford to bet, then pushing that stack of “blues” toward the center of the table—these are the only contacts the average player has with his chips.

Poker chips are not artistic. They require no study or appreciation. The game counters were artistic. In most cases they were close imitations in brass of the various gold coins of many nations. However, by the standards of the times in which they were used, perhaps they were not considered so artistic as we consider them today.

It is reasonable to assume that the 1850 poker player paid as little attention to his stack of counters as we pay to our chips. Conversely, might not the 2050 collectors consider our poker chips artistic and collectible?

It is not too difficult, then, to understand the low esteem in which spiel marken are held by today's collectors. The novice collector will not know them at all, because literature on coins seldom even mention counters. Numismatic savants know them—many dealers know them—European collectors know them. Most have little regard for them, although there has been a slight upswing in interest in the past decade.

American collectors at one time held a rather high regard for spiel marken. The old J. W. Scott firm of New York popularized certain of the better-made issues of the U.S., Latin America, France, the Netherlands etc. However, for some fifty years there has been little interest.

My introduction to the game counter is typical. Any collector of minor foreign coins sooner or later will find a little brass “coin” that doesn't look quite right. Curiosity demands satisfaction, so a book of some kind must be found. What I first found was a Hans Krauwinkel emission of Nuremberg and finally, after much reading, found a passing reference to Krauwinkel in an English handbook on coins. It was very brief but enough to whet my curiosity and from that moment I searched for counters with varying degrees of success.

Counters are no modern innovation—the Romans had their tesserae. These were standard equipment in Roman counting-houses, and the wealthy Romans had sets made of bronze, silver and even gold to use in some of their reckoning and games. Certain learned researchers advance the theory that counters may even pre-date coinage.

I will dwell here, though, merely on a few interesting items that have crossed my path and maybe yours, too. Perhaps we can learn a little more together by studying again those “absolutely unclassifiable” items that litter every collection. In the list below you will note pieces that have escaped classification by the writer, the first for 13 consecutive years.

1. Brass, cent-size, crudely reeded edge. Obverse: Crude bust in tasseled cap right, its hand holding a diminutive sword. Reverse: A mounted man with left arm upraised. In Cyrillic lettering THP-HCTA (Teresta) followed by another word which is as meaningless in Greek as in English. There is a small trident in the field.

It cannot be certain here that we even have a game counter, but a search through the extensive Remedi sale catalogue as well as many other books in many languages has yielded no comparable specimen. If any reader can tell me what I have, I will be eternally in his debt and shall forswear ever acquiring another such puzzler.

2. Brass, quarter-size, serrated edge, rather thin. Obverse: JOANNES ILLE COQVVS SVI FILI IQVE. A tree? and 16 stars inside an oval with pointed ends. Reverse: Two flowers and a Cyrillic inscription, IE.HCVO IDOL-NOZEN, the word YCOC in center between the flowers.

This piece vaguely resembles certain issues of Venice I have noted.

3. Brass, dime-size, very thin, uniface. Obverse: A fancy monogram, possibly SE. There is a counterstamped skull and crossbones. Reverse: Blank, all design showing through.

4. Copper, quarter-size, scyphate (cup-shaped). Obverse VI above G. Reverse: Blank.

Spiel Marken Study In Works

A major new article on game counters, or spiel marken, is in preparation by Russell Rulau, George Fuld and Maurice Gould. When completed, it will appear in serial form in the quarterly bulletin of the Society of Medal, Token and Obsolete Paper Money Collectors.

Scope of the article will cover those counters used in the United States, Latin America, Great Britain and the British colonies. The only previous publication covering American Game Counters has been Howard H. Kurth's “A Revised List of American Game Counters”, reprinted from a 1952 Numismatic Scrapbook article.

Watertown Club Subject Of News Story

The whole city of Watertown, N. Y., learned about its coin club when it was featured in a story in the Watertown Times.

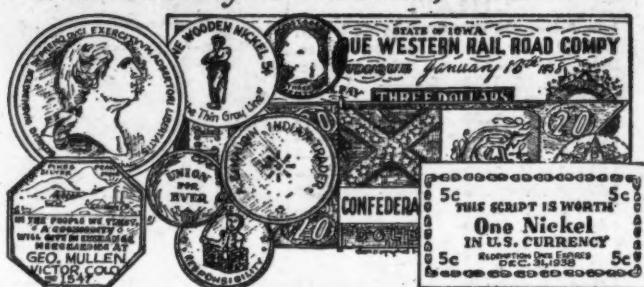

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Schoener were the organizers of the group 16 months ago—six people attended the first meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Schoener, Kenneth V. Gilette, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pellichella and Joseph W. Messina of Evans Mills.

Now the club has 110 members and meets the second Thursday of the month at the Italian American club on Bellevue avenue.

Massina is president, Clifford H. Butterfield, vice president, and Mrs. Paul G. Clobridge, secretary-treasurer.

Meetings feature business sessions, an auction and trading period, lectures and movies. Visitors are welcomed to the club meetings.

Exonumist Society Meets July 30 At La Mesa Center

The fourth general meeting of the Southern California Exonumist Society will be held at the La Mesa Recreation Center, 3440 University Avenue, La Mesa, Calif., on Sunday, July 30, from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Feature of the meeting will be an address by Paul Hamm, president of the society, entitled “So-Called Dollars”. His talk will be illustrated with 35 color slides of dollars in his collection. Hamm, a recognized authority on commemorative medals and monetary substitutes, is a contributor to the new book, “So-Called Dollars: A Guide and Price List”, written by H. E. Hibler and C. V. Kappe.

As in its May 21st meeting at Long Beach, Calif., Russell Rulau will conduct the all-exonumist auction. These auctions are limited to numismatic items other than coins and government banknotes, and have become the pattern of SCES meetings. Elmer T. Tvedt is auction chairman, and will accept lots placed by members at the meeting.

The bourse, which is also limited to exonumist items, is another unique feature of SCES meetings. Dealers report brisk sales, especially in the commemorative medal field, at previous meetings.

Refreshments will be served after Hamm's address and before the auction, and will allow guests to meet members on the social level. Don Crutcher of La Mesa is host.

Society strength has grown to 80 members in the eight months of its existence, and should reach 100 before its first anniversary in December.

Nominations Committee Chairman Leonel C. Panosh will present a slate of officers for 1962 at the July conclave. Additional nominations will be accepted from the floor at that time. The election will take place at the November meeting in Santa Monica.

Members and guests are urged to place exhibits in competition. The meeting is open to all interested collectors in the Southern California area. Agenda for the meeting: 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m., exhibits, bourse, new members made welcome; 12:30-1:30 p.m., business meeting; 1:30-2 p.m., Exonumist Forum; 2-3:30 p.m., refreshments, bourse, social hour; 3:30-5 p.m., auction.

Iowans Will Meet

The Cedar Falls, Iowa, Coin Club planned a meeting for Tuesday, July 25, in the Municipal Utilities building, starting at 7:30 p.m.

US and British material will cover the same span of time.

Collectors possessing American counters not listed in Kurth are urged to contact the authors. Collectors owning British counters of Queen Victoria which have the legends “KEEP YOUR TEMPER” or “TO HANOVER” on the reverse are also urged to report their specimens. They may write Rulau at 4007 Casita Way, San Diego 15, Calif.

The SMT & OPMC Quarterly is the official publication of the society and is devoted to producing original research articles for the benefit of collectors in fields which have been long ignored or misunderstood in numismatics. It is available to members of the Society of Medal, Token and Obsolete Paper Money Collectors without charge. Its second issue was recently mailed to members.

Florida Show August 5-6

Final arrangements for the Coin Show to be sponsored by the Winter Haven, Fla., Coin Club on Saturday and Sunday, August 5 and 6, are expected to be announced at the next meeting of the club, set for Tuesday, August 1, in the City Teen Center building, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Dealers from seven states have made reservations for the two-day Show and Auction, to be held in the Haven Hotel, according to a report from club officials.

This is the club's first public event since its organization last January under the sponsorship of the Winter Haven Recreation Department.

Buttons For Money

Ornate gold buttons were also used as currency by the Celts shortly after the time of Christ.

Junior Member Gives Program At Newly Organized Ohio Club

“How Coins Are Made”, a paper read by junior member Grant Auderhaar of St. Marys, Ohio, featured the program of the July meeting, its second regular, of the recently organized Shelby County, Ohio, Coin Club of Sidney.

Starting in the early days when coins were shaped and made with shears and a hammer, the speaker described the improvements that were possible with the invention of machinery.

Metal is first melted, then weighed, then poured into ingot molds to harden. Blank planchets are then cut out by a steel cutter, and sorted for weight. Underweight blanks are remelted, overweighted are filed down.

To make the dies, a steel cylinder is ground down to size of the coin, and the die-cutter engraves the design on the end. When many dies are needed, the first one is a master die. Impressions are made in soft steel which is then hardened for the working dies. In the United States, an electrotyping is made from a large model, and the dies are cut by a machine called a “pantographic die-cutter” which reproduces the electrotyping.

The planchets are fed into vertical tubes in the milling machine where they revolve under pressure to form the rim. They are then heated or annealed to soften them, to take the die impression.

Automatic fingers take each planchet and center it between the obverse and reverse dies, within a collar slightly larger than the planchet. Pressure of the presses spreads the planchet into the collar which is grooved to make the reeded edge.

Pressure of the presses varies from 175 tons for double eagles to 40 tons for dimes. The impact is repeated several times for each coin, to get the finer details which do not come out at the first striking.

The finished coin is released automatically, and another planchet is fed in. Large coins are stamped at the rate of 80 or 90 per minute, while smaller ones are made at about 120 per minute, or more. Dies are now destroyed at the end of each year.

Next meeting of the Shelby County Coin Club was set for Thursday, August 10, also to be held at the American Legion hall.

Claffey Wins At Frankfort

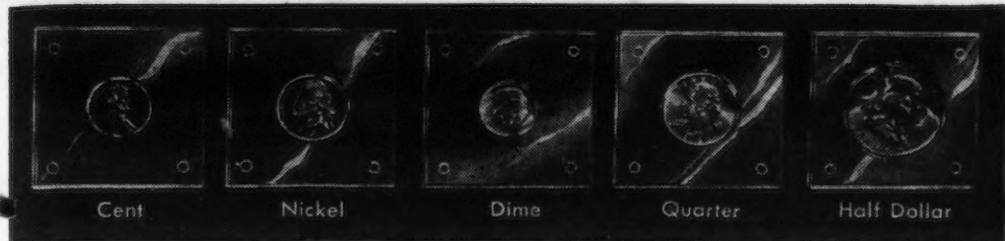

Fred Claffey of Indianapolis, Ind., won top award for exhibits at the first Coin and Stamp Show conducted by the Clinton County Coin Club of Frankfort, Ind., at the County Fairgrounds recently. Second prize went to Fred Smith, Jefferson, Ind., and third to Myron Huffman, Ft. Wayne.

Bourse tables were occupied by some 25 dealers from seven states. Estimated attendance for the one-day show was 2,000 visitors.

Show officials comprised Miller Easterly, Charles Spear, Frank Baker, Fred Smith and Fred Carter. They considered the show a success and are planning to make it an annual affair.

Set of five sizes in the new Sterling holders...

Sterling Distributes New Type Of Solid Plastic Coin Holders

Sterling Numismatic Supplies, of Evansville, Ind., has been made exclusive licensee to nationally distribute a new solid plastic coin holder.

This new coin holder is made of transparent plastic, precision molded to mint specifications of U.S. coins from 1 cent to 50 cents.

It is unique in that it hermetically seals itself from moisture and air, with only a slight finger pressure, due to an unusual taper pin locking design. Once sealed, this new coin holder cannot be pulled apart, except by sliding a knife around the outside edges. Opening in this manner does not damage the holder, nor affect the coin in any way, permitting the holder to be reused as desired, according to its designers.

A special narrow, self-sealing tape for edge marking the holder is also provided.

This new holder is a product of McMasters Plastics, who have patents pending on the item.

Advantages claimed for the new holder is that coins fit perfectly, will not rattle, cannot "breathe" due to temperature changes, as do many other types of holders, thus keeping the coin in perfect condition, almost as if they were embedded in solid plastic.

The holder being completely transparent, gives a perfect view of the obverse, reverse, and the edge of coin.

They are packed 25 to the box and will be available nationally from all leading coin supply dealers.

Future plans include holders for gold coins and possibly Canadian coins, as the conditions warrant.

Sterling Numismatic Supplies is arranging for a set of one each of the five sizes to be made available to any numismatist for $1. The regular price will be 25 cents per holder, or $6 per box of 25.

Currency Michigan Specialty

Dollar For Cent Offered

To celebrate its 39th anniversary, the Lewis County Savings and Loan Association, Chehalis, Wash., is offering a silver dollar for any 1922 U. S. cent in good condition.

On the other hand, bank officials say that they'll also trade silver dollars for 1922 cents.

"We want to emphasize that this association was organized in 1922," commented Arthur S. Cory, president.

Joseph W. Scott, a member of the club and a Sarasota coin dealer, conducted the session. The club plans to continue these instructional sessions as long as there is a demand for them, reported Harold E. Harvey, president.

HONESTY NEVER DIES!

We have found honesty isn't dead and have based our business on that finding. Murder will out and soon now coin collecting will have rooted out the black sheep. So keep the coins coming. We'll give you a nice, honest price and will sell at a nice, honest price. Remember 85% of the coin collectors work for a living. When you "price them out" that's when coins will hit the skids. Only two out of 56 persons offering us coins in the past five weeks have turned down our offer! Keep sending them!

Tyson Speaks On Tokens At Wilmington Club Session

"Transportation Tokens" was the theme of the Wilmington, Del., Coin Club meeting held June 27 at the West End Neighborhood House with Cornelius B. Tyson as the guest speaker.

The club also inspected a museum piece from the year when the Swedes first landed in Wilmington, presented to the club by a Swedish collector.

Axel Miltander, honorary member of the Wilmington Coin Club, and Coin World columnist, who lives in Gothenburg, Sweden, publicized the American club in his Swedish column.

Mrs. Dorothy Kraisman informed members that correspondence from the Swedish coin collectors is available to anyone who is interested in a pen pal.

Tyson, in his token discussion, told the club that transportation tokens in American numismatics have a venerability equal to that of the earliest regular issues of United States coins.

The first transportation tokens known to have been struck in the United States, he continued were those issued in the 1790's for use on the turnpike in the vicinity of Lancaster, Pa. Later, in the early part of the 19th century, various tokens were issued for use on plank roads, covered bridges, small railroads and omnibus lines. In the second half of the 19th century, transportation tokens were used very widely for bridges, ferries, private turnpikes, horse-car, cable-car and electric railroad lines.

Slides were shown of the following early tokens: Marcella & Maytown Turnpike Company at Marcella, Pa.; rare tokens used in Philadelphia for the Kensington & Frankford Plank Road Company.

Three old horse-car tokens—Philadelphia—the 6th & 8th Street lines; Rochester, N. Y.; and La Crosse, Wisconsin.

One used in Chicago by Chicago Street Car.

One used in New York City by Durkee & Co.

Black token from Mobile, Ala.; brown one flaked with shiny mica from Allentown, Pa.; and a bright red one from Hot Springs, Ark.

Picture and portrait tokens: Mark Twain; Tom Sawyer & Huck Finn used by the Hannibal, Mo. Transportation Company. Abe Lincoln from Lincoln, Nebr.,

an old California mission from San Jose; bus token from Baltimore enough to purchase one hair with bridge token from Houghton, Mich. for one foot passenger; and one from Boston dated 1837.

Commemorative tokens: a Los Angeles token welcoming the arrival of the first streamline street cars in 1937; token commemorating the same event in Philadelphia in 1938.

Varieties were also recognized—the legend is continuing on one token and in two lines on the other.

Three forms of transportation which used tokens: a steamship at Halifax, Nova Scotia, an old trolley from Lancaster, Ohio, and a ferry token from Dogtown, Ill.

COIN WORLD CELEBRATES THE CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL WITH A COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL

Available Only

Subscribers!

(Non-subscribers, see new subscription form in this issue.)

Available Only
From Coin World!

(One of a series)

The firing on Fort Sumter one hundred years ago marked the beginning of the War between the States. As we join the five year centennial of this historic event, Coin World joins in commemorating this event by preserving in metal the heads of state for both the North and the South: Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis.

Bronze medals have been struck bearing the portraits of these two leaders. Above the three-quarter view of Lincoln and Davis appear the words: 1861 - CENTENNIAL - 1961, below, the words: WAR BETWEEN THE STATES.

On the reverse of this medal is a symbol familiar to more than 67,000 collectors — the revolving globe of the world,

Coin World's trademark! An entire series of these commemorative medals is planned, maintaining the continuity of this reverse. Each year, a prominent event or person will be placed on the obverse portraying a part in a series of American numismatic events.

You will certainly want to get the first one in this series of Coin World medals. These half-dollar-sized medals will form a companion piece to your commemorative half dollars, so-called half dollars, and other half dollar size medallion series.

Bluffton Forms Coin, Hobby Club

The Wells Coin and Hobby Club was recently formed at Bluffton, Ind.

After two organizational meetings, members met on June 23 and elected officers, as well as discussing plans for future activities.

Officers are: Robert Guthrie, president; Rolland Vore, vice president; Mrs. Marguerite Coyle, recording secretary; Earl Deam, treasurer. All are from Bluffton with the exception of Mrs. Coyle, who is from Keystone, Ind.

The new officers are hopeful that the club will grow in size and interest.

state for a special shuttle bus in Washington; one provided for postmen in Dayton, Ohio; and one from Grafton, W. Va.

History of Delaware tokens, all used in Wilmington. Some were found in ground at site of old amusement park when excavating for a shopping center. Three tokens represent changing ownership of what is now Delaware Coach.

Pair of tokens from East Rockaway, N. Y.

Token used on a ferry for construction workers, building the Bonneville Dam in the state of Washington. New York token which reads "Telegraph Line-Tyson & Co." on reverse.

In transportation tokens, one can learn geography, some things about the history of transportation, and have a lot of fun for a little money.

Jules Reiver prepared the slides. C. B. Tyson won a prize for the best token exhibit of the evening.

Standards Lowered

In ancient Athens the demand for money was so great that coins of inferior quality were often hastily struck.

Dollars Early Coin

U. S. silver dollars were minted first in 1794; the last silver dollars were struck in 1935.

Type Coin Slides Shown For Program

Members of the Oregon Trail Coin Club of Scottsbluff, Nebr., saw slides of type coins, shown by E. J. Williamson, at their last meeting. Doyle Daggett gave the commentary.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ryan of the Cheyenne, Wyo., Coin Club, of which Ryan is secretary.

Foreign Coins Shown At Cleveland Session

Members of the Western Reserve Numismatic Club, Cleveland, Ohio, displayed coins of their favorite countries at the club's recent meeting at the Women's Federal Bank's downtown office. Each member also gave a brief talk about his coins.

The club meets the second Wednesday of each month. Officers are: Lamont Kier, president Kier, president; Joe Lukas, first vice president; Fred Rosenthal, second vice president; Fred Halen, secretary.

Lackey President Of New Goldsmith Club

Ralph Lackey has been named president of the recently formed Goldsmith, Texas, Coin Club, with Paul Morrison chosen vice president, and Mrs. Pauline Fulk, secretary-treasurer.

The club will meet at Pauline's Cafe in Goldsmith, where information may be obtained regarding future sessions.

Small Cent Interest High Dealer Says

"Collectors are showing more interest in U. S. small cents than ever before," said Harvey Stack of Stack's Coin Co., New York, said in a recent interview. "During the past year we have noted a marked increase in activity in this area of numismatics," added Stack.

The New York dealer also commented that more collectors are demonstrating a real interest in gold coins, both U.S. and foreign.

Several other New York dealers remarked that there are greater demands for Confederate States paper money since the Civil War centennial celebrations began this year.

"We are having some difficulty in keeping up a good stock of Confederate paper money," commented a mid-town Manhattan dealer "since most collectors insist on uncirculated notes only."

Most New York coin dealers reported that business has been brisk in recent weeks, and that they have not been hit by the "summer slump" as they have been in other years.

Coast Group To Form

Interest in the proposed Northern California Numismatic Association has been almost overwhelming, with requests for membership and even offers of dues flooding the secretary, according to a report from Denis H. Hooker, chairman of the Steering Committee and president of the San Jose Coin Club.

Hooker has requested that special announcements be made as follows:

No dues will be accepted until a permanent treasurer has been elected or appointed; no membership restrictions will be made, in that any club or its individual members may join the NCNA; all interested persons should attend a general meeting scheduled for Monday, August 7, to be held in conjunction with the meeting of the San Jose club at the San Jose Y.W.C.A., Second and San Antonio Streets, third floor, which starts at 7:45 p.m.

At the initial meeting to discuss the proposition, a steering committee was named. In addition to Hooker, it included John Cobb, George Dusio, Bud Grimes, George Squires and Frank Roza, with Lillian Hooker named secretary.

Five clubs agreed to give the organization a financial start by Mid-State Coin Club was the name selected by a group of collectors who met recently at Asheboro, N. C., to form an organization. J. D. Groom and Hugh Anderson were chosen temporary chairman and vice chairman, respectively.

Charter memberships in the club will remain open until August, at which time permanent officers are to be elected. Coin collectors in the area interested in joining are asked to contact Groom or Anderson regarding the time and place of the next session, which is slated for Wednesday, August 9.

pledging between $25 and $50 each. These five comprised Lockheed, Pajaro Valley Coin Club of Watsonville, San Jose Coin Club, Central California Coin Club of Monterey, and Santa Cruz Coin Club. It was reported that at least 13 other clubs were interested.

The August 7 meeting is expected to provide the formal organization and to determine the charter members, Hooker stated.

Readers Follow Up On Notgeld, Die Relations

In the June 2 issue of Coin World, this column gave a poor answer to Don Wydeven of Kimberly, Wisc., regarding the identification of a 1919 iron 10 pfennig piece, inscribed "Stadt Trier".

Hans K. Schnugg of Akron, Ohio, has put us to rights on it, and from his name, he should know. Trier is in Germany, not The Netherlands as we said without looking it up. It is also called Treves, which we did not know, or had overlooked. What we might well have recognized, but did not, was the piece in question is a part of what is generally known as "notgeld", meaning "not money".

Very little literature is available on this subject, outside of some articles in "The Numismatist" in 1948 and later. Unfortunately, the editors of the "Selections from the Numismatist" did not feel the notgeld important enough to repeat any of the material, nor even list it under "further reading".

The notgeld was issued for the same reason that our Civil War Tokens were issued—not enough official hard money available. Like the CW tokens, they were issued by business firms and individuals, but unlike them, many were issued by civic units such as cities, and states, which should give them some sort of semi-official status. The period involved was 1914-1924, much longer than our Civil War period of tokens.

Whereas the U.S. Civil War tokens were almost all one denomination, one cent, the notgeld was coined in many denominations, from the smallest to a double thaler. W. H. Crawford, Kenton, Ohio, has one of those, from Westfalen, dated 1923. Herr Schnugg says:

"The 10 Pfennig piece is definitely emergency money, since it has the name of the City on the coinage. In that time, according to Kurt Jaegers 'Die Deutschen Reichsmuenzen seit 1871' (German money since 1871), 3,000 different kinds and sorts were issued from various cities in Germany, due to shortage of hard money or change.

"The striking of 1.5 Billiards 5 Pfennig coins in Iron and Zinc, 1200 Million Zinc 10 Pfennig pieces, and 220 Million Iron 10 Pfennig pieces were not enough, and cities began to strike their own change money, called the emergency coins (Notgeld).

"I have two specimens of this kind from Bonn dated 1920, and two of Sangerhausen, dated 1917. Both are iron. For more information on this subject, I refer you to Dr. Arnold Keller, 'Das Deutsche Notgeld 1914-1924, III Teil, 1. Abteilung: Hartnotgeld, offizielle Ausgabe' (translated to the best of our ability: 'German Notgeld Volume III, Division 1, Hartnotgeld, official edition'—column editor).

"Few people collect these coins because they are mostly of local interest".

We thank Herr Schnugg for the information quoted above. In our opinion, interest in notgeld is wider than he thinks, even if only because many people have some and don't know what they have. We suspect a lot of such coins were brought back from Germany after World War I, and have been only recently brought to light because of the sudden increased interest in collecting in the last year or two.

As time goes on, there will be even more interest, because the closer we are to History, the less we think of it. Our own Civil War tokens make a pretty close parallel in many ways, with a (Continued on Page 50)

Huguenot Landing Occasion For Beaufort Commemorative Medals

The Huguenot Half Dollar medals issued to commemorate the Port Royal, South Carolina, colony established by the Huguenots in the 16th century are available for one dollar from the Beaufort, S. C., Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The address is Beaufort Jaycee Medal Sales, P. O. Box 678, Beaufort, S. C.

The medal, struck in limited number, is one and a half inches in diameter and weighs 185 grains. It is made of bronze with a goldine coating which is sealed to preserve its brilliance.

The obverse shows the profile of Jean Ribault, who lead a small fleet to the New World to escape the persecution by the weak King Charles. A ship portrayed in the harbor is a replica of the type vessel Ribault anchored off the shores of the area which he named Port Royal.

The palmettos shown on the beach stand as majestically today as they did 400 years ago, the Jaycees proudly point out. On the reverse is shown the torch on which are found three fleur de lis, a heraldic device, the bearing of the former royal family of France. Embracing the torch are leaves from the giant palmettos.

The Huguenot Half Dollar medal issued by the Beaufort, S. C., Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Direct quotation, "no fayrer or fyttter place," was obtained from a translation of a report from Jean Ribault to the king of France, describing the area of land upon which his men settled.

The medals cost $1 each, postpaid. The Beaufort Jaycees are working in conjunction with the Quadracentennial Commission of Beaufort county; the medal was struck to celebrate the 400th anniversary which is probably second only to the landing of Columbus in the history of North America, the commission proclaims.

New Policy On Coin World Mail Bid Sale Ads

In response to numerous requests of our readers, we are changing our policy on Mail Bid Sale ads!

We will now accept Mail Bid Sales smaller than four inches in size. However, all Mail Bid Sale ads of 10 inches or less are appearing at the start of the Classified Pages effective with the June 2nd issue. They will be set in Classified style and will appear in new Classification 00. This will give buyers one definite place to look for Mail Bid Sale ads of this size.

All copy must be about the Mail Bid Sale and no fixed price items may appear in the same ad. If no sale date is given, we will establish 10 days from publication date.

rather large number of Americans unaware of their existence.

While we are referring to back columns, on June 9 we discussed briefly the relationship of the obverse and reverse on U.S. and English coins, stating that the normal relationship on our coinage is that a coin must be turned over vertically to see both sides right-side up. In England, we said, it is the opposite; the coin must be turned horizontally. When the situation is not like that, we say we have a case of "rotated" or "upset" dies, and call it a "Mint error".

Comes a letter now from F. A. Romberg of Bellair, Texas, who did some research on this subject and is reporting the results. He specializes in milled English coins from 1670 to date, and also has some 250 modern coins of the world pretty well mixed as to date, denomination and metal, and from 39 countries, all of which should provide representative samples.

Since we know of no other such research, we are glad to publish this material as an addition to numismatic knowledge, even if only ours! We quote:

"On the English coins I find that before 1787 they all have the same orientation as current U. S. coins; that is, they must be turned vertically for both sides to be right side up. Between 1787 and about 1816, give or take a few years for different denominations, the coins must be turned horizontally.

"From about 1816 to 1886, they go back to the vertical orientation. In 1887, with the new Victorian coinage, the change was made again and has continued since.

"There are a few exceptions to this in my collection: threepence and fourpence coins dated 1828 to 1843 have the modern arrangement. Nine gold coins follow the general rule given above.

(Aside to Mr. Romberg: we have a 1797 "cartwheel", as noted in that June 9 column, which has the vertical orientation. How does that fit in? Could it be a "rotated die"?)

"With regard to the modern foreign coins, with three exceptions, all the coins of any given country have the same orientation, as far as my 39 countries are concerned.

"Of these, all coins from British possessions, British Commonwealth countries, and former Commonwealth countries, Scandinavian countries, Persia, Austria, Germany and Czechoslovakia, must be turned horizontally, as with modern British coins.

"All coins from South America, Mexico, and European countries not mentioned above must be turned vertically. The three exceptions are these:

"The only Canadian coin before 1887 which I have is an 1866, which conforms to the British style in 1866. I surmise that Canadian coins will all follow British arrangements of the same date.

"I have four Portuguese coins before 1932 which must be turned horizontally, and one dated 1945 which must be turned the other way.

"I have six minor copper-nickel Swiss coins dated 1926-1944 which must be turned horizontally; and three silver Swiss coins of 1933-1944 which must be turned horizontally; and three silver Swiss coins of 1933-1944 which must be turned vertically.

"I believe my English collection is sufficiently representative to indicate the facts, although I have no explanation to offer. I report the foreign statistics just as a matter of interest."

Thank you, Mr. Romberg. As

Californians Keep Schedule

The Santa Cruz, Calif., Coin Club has set up a summer schedule of meetings that calls for "trading nights" on the second Monday of each month, and regular sessions on the fourth Monday, according to an announcement from secretary Elvin V. Huckins. Meetings are held at Hackley Hall, 513 Center Street, Santa Cruz, starting at 8 p.m.

In a campaign for more publicity, the club has decided to run a steady notice in the classified section of the local newspaper, so that the public will know when the club meets.

Other recent decisions of the club include the awarding of a dollar each to the best junior and adult displays, in order to get better exhibits at club meetings.

Tyrone Club Sees Two Medal Films

Thomas Marsden presided over the regular business meeting of the Tyrone, Pa., Coin Club held recently at the Tyrone Y.M.C.A. Two films on medal making, "The Medal Maker" and "Let's Take a Trip," were shown. These films were furnished free by the Medallic Art Co. of New York, reported Bruce Carpenter, club secretary.

Stewart Dillon of Center Hall, Pa., was a club visitor. Dillon is interested in forming a coin club in State College, Pa.

An auction was held at the conclusion of the meeting.

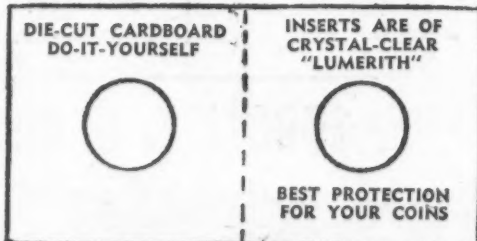

Altering Costs Ears

Ann Tew, a spinster, was found guilty by a Lancaster, Pa., court in 1765 for altering a two shilling Pennsylvania bill to a 10. Ann stood for an hour in the pillory, had both ears cut off and nailed to the pillory.

we said, we do not know of any such research as you have made, although there may well be some. We think it is important to know such things, if only because we cannot spot a departure from the normal unless we know what is normal. We will be glad to have other comments on this matter if it is of interest.

the Oakville, Ontario, Coin Club, held at the Legion Hall.

The club has under consideration a project to present a full set of bronze and silver medallions to the Ontario Museum, Toronto; Oakville Museum, Public Archives, Ottawa, and possibly a museum in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Pelkey, president and secretary of the club, report a recent visit to the Mint at Ottawa and a visit to the Public Archives where A. E. H. Petrie, curator, and editor of the Canadian Numismatic Association, was their special guide.

Other recent club programs have included movies of the club's May banquet, taken by Charles Bowen, and "The City of Gold," narrated by Pierre Burton.

Harry Holt of Weston, one of the club's new members, won the special prize at the June session, attended by 44 members and 17 guests.

A picnic for September is also on the future docket for the club.

Los Angeles Has New Club

"Transportation Coin Club" is the name of Los Angeles' newest numismatic organization, formed in early June at a meeting held at the Alexandria Hotel in the California city, according to a report from its vice president, Joseph E. Rosenberg.

Other officers elected at the initial session included C. H. Cantrell, president; Dorothea Foster, secretary, and K. R. Moore, treasurer.

First Sunday in each month was chosen as the meeting date.

Michigan Club Meets In School

The Liberty Coin Club of Belleville, Mich., holds its meetings on the second Wednesday of each month, in room 115 of the Belleville High school. Peter Kress of Belleville is president.

Warning On Coins

"To counterfeit is death" is written on to many pieces of American colonial currency issued during the 18th century.

Risk Speaks At Westchester

"A Medal Collector's Viewpoint" was the topic used by James C. Risk, chairman of the decorations, insignia and war medals committee of the American Numismatic Society, when he spoke to members of the Westchester county, N. Y., Coin Club meeting recently at the New Rochelle YMCA.

The Order of the Bath was one of the main topics of Risk's discussion; he illustrated it with colored slides.

Lincoln cents, dimes and coins from foreign countries beginning with the letter, "D," were exhibited by Westchester members.

Special Announcement

We are proud to announce that we have made arrangements with William Fox Steinberg of Miami Rare Coin Company for the exclusive distribution of the following John F. Kennedy silver commemorative medal.

We feel that a medal of this quality and beauty has long been overdue at this new official price. Now those "small" collectors who appreciate medallic art at its finest can afford to own one and still have some money left to buy other coins.

NOTE TO DEALERS: To those of you who have received Foxy's list, we will deliver at his quoted prices. Other interested dealers please inquire.

PERSONAL NOTE TO FOXY: I want to publicly thank you for your confidence in us and also for making this medal possible in such superb quality at the realistic price. Hope this is the first of many such items and arrangements.

Signed, Joseph L. Welles, President
Welles & Company, Topeka, Kansas

OFFICIAL COMMEMORATIVE MEDALS

For the important and historical events of our times.

We have been appointed sole distributors of the official, commemorative medals shown below. They have all been issued under the authority of a governing body.

Struck in both bronze and silver, they are each a handsome 2½" in size and come boxed with a printed, informative circular of educational value. In all cases, they have been struck by the world-famous Medallic Art Company from the sculptured models of some of America's foremost sculptors and they are supreme examples of medallic art at its finest.

Their natural-born beauty and massive proportion, combined with historical and numismatic value, make them cherished pieces of heirloom quality.
